Nephew reeling as vase is stolen

A HEARTFELT plea has been made after a vase bought by a teenage boy to honour his late uncle was stolen from a Cannock gravestone.

Sandra Harvey and her nephew Joe have been left devastated by the theft, which took place at Cannock Cemetery, on Pye Green Road, earlier this month.

Mrs Harvey's husband Tommy passed away three months ago and she had a stone placed at the cemetery, along with his ashes.

To honour his memory, 15-year-old nephew Joe bought a vase, with flowers, to put on his grave on Sunday, February 19.

Four days later when Mrs Harvey, of Heath Hayes, paid a visit to her late husband's grave, the vase and flowers were gone.

Mrs Harvey said she desperately hoped the vase, which cost £11, would be returned.

She said: "Joe is heartbroken as he paid for the vase himself."

"I am trying to come to terms myself in losing my husband and I hope whoever took it has a guilty mind and returns it where they took it from."

Game halted after injuries

A RUGBY game was abandoned when two players suffered serious injuries.

Rugeley were playing Wheaton Aston & Penkridge on Hagley Fields when the two separate injuries occurred in the second half.

Rugeley winger Matt Reynolds picked up a serious knee injury, resulting in treatment from the on-duty paramedic. Then around 15 minutes later, the Air Ambulance was sent to treat a serious head/neck injury sustained by team-mate Dave Bagnall.

At this point the referee abandoned the game.

Scholars hit £10,000 prize target

NEW facilities costing £10,000 which were made possible through winning a national competition have been unveiled at Chasetown Football Club.

In 2010 the club triumphed in a competition run by Evo-Stik, sponsors of the Northern Premier League, in which the Scholars ply their trade.

Participants were asked to submit a three-minute video showing why they deserved a £10,000 voucher from builders' merchant Travis Perkins. Chasetown's imaginative entry, which included the world's largest cartridge of Evo-Stik and an appearance from Burntwood-born former Premier League referee Alan Wiley, attracted the most votes.

The club decided to spend on upgrading its disabled and toilet facilities, relocating a physiotherapy room and adding additional fencing around the Scholars ground in Church Street.

Chasetown chief executive Mike Joiner said it was fantastic to be able to unveil the improved facilities.

"The money has been used to enhance the matchday experience for our fans, who demonstrate passion for the club and the non-league game week in, week out. Improving facilities at the club for both players and fans is always top of the agenda but is often cost prohibitive, so we were over the moon to win The Evo-Stik League facilities makeover competition."

Tony Davison, managing director of Bostik UK, said: "The quality of club facilities in the non-league game varies substantially and many clubs are constantly battling to find funds."

"We are delighted for Chasetown FC and especially for their loyal fan base for whom this makeover will make a real difference."

The £10,000 prize was the latest of several successes for Chasetown.

Probe on family's heating problems

A CANNOCK councillor has promised a thorough investigation after an elderly Brereton woman and her daughter were left without heating and hot water for almost a month.

Doris Brown, aged 85, lives with her daughter Julie Harrison. Their boiler broke down at the start of the month but wasn't replaced until last Friday (February 24).

During that time the pair only had heating for two days. A number of new parts were fitted but the boiler continued to break down.

Mrs Brown, who has lived in her daughter's home for 17 years, said: "I'm vulnerable to extreme temperatures and electric heaters are very expensive to run."

"It should have been sorted out a long time ago."

Councillor Frank Allen, Cannock Chase Council's housing leader, apologised and said an investigation had been launched.

"I'm sorry that Ms Harrison has had ongoing problems with her boiler," he said. "We apologise for the length of time it took to sort the problem out and we're carrying out a thorough investigation."

Charity plea to Give It Up

RESIDENTS in Cannock and Burntwood are being urged to give up their favourite treats for Lent and raise thousands of pounds for charity.

As part of Catholic aid agency CAFOD's annual Give It Up appeal, people have been asked to help raise money to provide clean water for those in deprived areas across the world.

Last year more than £4,000 was raised by Cannock and Burntwood residents.

Visit www.cafod.org.uk for more information.

CANNOCK Chase will be central to the Paralympics this summer, with one lucky resident being invited to bring the torch to the town.

Four flames will be lit as part of a new concept for the Paralympic Torch Relay, one each in London, Belfast, Edinburgh and Cardiff.

The four flames will be united at the Paralympic Flame Lighting Ceremony, at Stoke Mandeville, the spiritual home of the Paralympic Movement, to create the London 2012 Paralympic Flame.

Someone from the district will be chosen to act as a flame ambassador and attend one of the four lighting events and take part of the flame back to the celebration in Cannock Chase.

Honour

The celebration will take place on Saturday, August 25 with a special "Party in the Pool" event at Chase Leisure Centre, with swimming and lots of have-a-go sessions including multi-sports, cricket, trampolining, football and golf.

The flame will be kept at Chase Leisure Centre for the public to view and will also be touring other leisure facilities in the district.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, the council's culture and sport leader, said: "It's a great honour to be chosen to host a flame celebration in the district and to be part of the London 2012 Paralympic Torch Relay.

By Harry Gottschalk

"We're delighted to be able to celebrate the values of the Paralympic movement of fair play and honourable sports competition."

A total of 34 communities around the country will be hosting flame celebrations and will be part of the programme of events that will take place over the August Bank Holiday weekend.

On Tuesday, August 28 the Paralympic flame will be carried by torchbearers, running in teams of five, in a 24-hour overnight relay from Stoke Mandeville to the Olympic Stadium for the opening ceremony of the London 2012 Paralympic Games.

Back in November, the district was left disappointed when Cannock failed to be selected as a host for the 2012 Olympic torch relay.

Officers have admitted they were too busy to attend a crucial workshop.

The city of Lichfield was named on the official route, however, along with Streethead, Great Wyrley, Newtown and the National Memorial Arboretum in Alrewas.

Tony McGovern, Corporate Director of Cannock Chase District Council, said at the time that no-one would miss out on the torch as it is would pass through neighbouring districts.

Horn End youngsters Katie Hodge, Oliver Foley and Jamie Wolfe learning how to make teddy bears

Children get teddy to go a bear hunt

RUGELEY children enjoyed a special day out when they went on a bear hunt to make their own cuddly toys.

Horn End Nursery youngsters were invited to Kids 2 Play, in Walkmill Lane, Cannock, where they each wrote down a wish on a star to put inside a stuffed teddy to take home.

They then made cuddly lion toys to keep at the nursery, which is located in Wharf Road.

Acting deputy manager Sarah Scarlett said: "They all had a lovely time and it fitted in with their topic for the month, was which Where We Live."

Later this month Horn End toddlers are off to Stafford for a special Olympic-themed event, which ties in with Sport Relief.

Lions branch out for tree planting

Some of those that attended the tree planting event

LIONS club members in Rugeley have branched out by planting 420 saplings along the Trent and Mersey Canal.

Lions International has pledged to grow a million trees worldwide and Rugeley club members did their bit as part of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

More than 20 people, from the Inland Waterways Association, the Landor Local History Society, community police, local councillors, families, boaters and the general public all enjoyed a spring day to help make a real difference to their town. Organiser Lion Ed Rule said: "Tree planting was a fun way for all of us to do something lasting for our local area. It's incredible to think that in just five years, our trees will be as tall as us. Rugeley Lions would like to thank everyone who came along to help us."

The Woodland Trust donated all the trees as part of a nation-wide project to commemorate the Jubilee.

Further tree planting events are now being planned for the autumn.

Restaurant go-ahead will bring in 80 jobs

A NEW fast-food restaurant has been given the go-ahead in Cannock, creating up to 80 jobs. The KFC bid was approved by Cannock Chase Council's planning control committee.

Council tax freeze is given nod by cabinet

COUNCIL bosses have agreed a tax freeze for Cannock Chase residents. The budget has been set to protect services and relieve the financial burden on households.

Cannock Chase Council's Labour-run cabinet approved the 2012-13 spending programme at a meeting last week after taking proposals by Conservative and Liberal Democrats into account.

Members voted to keep a free pest control service for rats, mice, fleas, bedbugs and cockroaches and extend it to include wasps' nests at a further cost of £12,000.

Also under the proposals, cemetery fees will be retained and street signs will be improved.

A grant of £7,500 will be given to the struggling Chase Advice Centre, based in Park Road, which provides advice and support for elderly and unemployed residents. However, the amount is £2,500 less than originally planned.

Council leader George Adamson said the cabinet had taken into account the views of other parties.

Labour's plan to provide public toilets for shoppers and other visitors to Cannock was scrapped following a review.

The chain will provide 40 new jobs with more posts at a derelict industrial plant also to be brought back into use.

The plans are for a site on the south side of the Old Hednesford Road. As part of the plans, KFC will clean up a derelict industrial area of the site before seeking to bring in an external company to occupy the buildings and bring in its own workforce.

Cannock already has one KFC outlet on the Orbital Retail Park, in Voyager Drive.

Councillors say this new site has remained undeveloped for a long time with no significant interest, despite being actively marketed since 2009.

Training

Bob Woollard, planning agent for KFC, told the meeting: "This will deliver 80 jobs locally. The jobs at KFC are real jobs with training opportunities for the staff."

A document put together by officers at Cannock Chase Council advised councillors: "The proposal represents sustainable development, which would result in regeneration and the creation of employment opportunities, without undermining the vitality and viability of nearby centres."

Meanwhile plans for the construction of three family homes on a Cannock estate were deferred. The detached homes would have had access from Shoal Hill Close.

But committee chairman Councillor John Kraujalis said the application was being deferred to allow for other interested parties to come forward.

Hyden seeks dog sight funds

Rob Hyden gets set for his 30-mile sponsored walk with husky dog Thunder

A DOG lover has gone that extra mile to help stop his pet dog from going blind.

Robert Hyden has already sold his car and computer to raise funds to stop his 14-month-old Siberian husky Thunder from losing his sight.

And last weekend, he marked his 35th birthday by trekking from Rugeley to Lichfield and Cannock fire stations, before heading back to Rugeley, to raise awareness of his plight. He needs to raise £4,500 for an operation that will save Thunder's sight.

"I was devastated to find out that he is going blind at such an early age due to cataracts and desperately needs an operation in order to save his sight," Mr Hyden said. Thunder joined the nursing home worker on his 30-mile journey.

"It's a nice way to spend my birthday," added Mr Hyden.

Charity store in closure for refit

CHARITY giant Newlife closed its flagship Cannock store for two days this week - and will shut again from March 12 to 16 for a major refurbishment.

Newlife Foundation CEO Sheila Brown, OBE, said a makeover of the Hemlock Way store was long overdue.

She said: "The superstore is now 11 years old and it was high time it had a makeover, to expand the retail space and improve facilities like changing rooms and toilets."

"We apologise for any inconvenience the closures may cause, but want to reassure all our customers that the bigger, fresher and even better facilities will make their shopping experience more enjoyable."

Stephen Morgan, Newlife's operations manager, said: "It's quite substantial work, people will see a big increase in space, we will be removing some of the stud walls to create more room."

"We will be moving the fitting rooms and the customer service desk and it will have a repaint."

On agenda at meeting

POLICING matters, traffic calming measures and an update on the closure of A&E at Stafford Hospital will all be on the agenda at a community forum next week.

Residents in Heath Hayes, Norton Canes and Rawsley can submit questions to the forum, which takes place on Monday, March 5, from 7pm at Norton Canes High School, Burntwood Road.

The full agenda is available on the Cannock Chase Council website at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/meetings

Ceremony to reward fire staff

THE BBC's Joanne Malin will host this year's Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service's annual MORE awards today (Thursday).

The ceremony takes place tomorrow at the County Showground in Stafford.

Chase Terrace firefighter Paul Robinson has been shortlisted for the community award for consistently going above and beyond his role.

Paul often carries out unpaid duties at Chase Terrace Fire Station and is highly dedicated to helping to keep his community safe, something which is apparent following 335 home fire risk checks carried out in Chase Terrace in just eight months.

The Rugeley Road Safety team has been shortlisted for the Service to the Community Award.

Also among the short-listed nominees is Lichfield Fire Station's administration manager Pauline Paten who has been shortlisted for the Leadership Message Award. Pauline's nomination is for her dedicated support of the National Memorial Arboretum.

Lichfield Student Fire-fighter Jack Hart, aged 17, has been shortlisted for the Young Person of the Year.

Students in production

STUDENTS in Burntwood promise an action-packed, Wild West extravaganza for their annual production next week.

The Erasmus Darwin Academy pupils are performing Calamity Jane from March 7 to 10 at 7pm each night. It takes place in the Academy Theatre and features songs such as The Deadwood Stage and The Black Hills of Dakota.

Hannah Bird takes on the lead role with sixth former Jack Hawley playing Wild Bill Hickock. Tickets are £6 or £3.50, from the Academy in Pool Road. Call 01543 685828.

USB stick find

A MEMORY stick has been found in Heath Hayes and an appeal has gone out to trace the owner. A man came across the object while taking his grandson to school at Five Ways Primary, in Langholm Drive, and is keen to return it. If anyone can lay claim to the memory stick, call The Chronicle on 01543 465304.

April unveiling date for miners' memorial

A montage of the miners memorial

THE FINAL phase of a memorial to miners who worked in Cannock Chase collieries will be unveiled in April.

Since 2006, when the original memorial was built, CHAPS (Chase Art in Public Spaces) has led a project to add extra commemorative bricks as demand was so high.

Relatives of Chase miners have paid £20 to have their names and the pit they worked at inscribed on a brick, which will now form part of the extended memorial wall.

The refurbished memorial, which already consists of an 8ft davy lamp, is based on Market Street and a service to open it will be led by the Bishop of Manchester, the Rt Rev Nigel McCulloch.

Chase Orpheus Male Choir, accompanied by Rugeley Power Station Brass Band, will perform during the dedication ceremony, which will also be attended by former MP and CHAPS chairman Dr Tony Wright.

Mike Mellor, treasurer of CHAPS who has overseen the project, said that although the named bricks were now mostly in place, there was still work to do before it was unveiled on April 28.

"We're expecting a large number of people to attend the service and believe this project to be a very fitting way to remember all those who worked in our local collieries," Mr Mellor added.

A book telling the story of the memorial has been produced, containing information about Cannock Chase collieries as well as a list of everyone named on a brick and stories about some of the people who worked in the mines and on the Chase coalfields.

It costs £5 and will be on sale after the dedication ceremony, which starts at 3pm.

£1.5m luxury fleet of buses is heralded by firm's bosses

A FLEET of 11 new buses worth £1.5 million introduced in Cannock will make a difference to the comfort of passengers' journeys, bosses have said.

Thousands of passengers in Cannock are set to benefit after the 11 new single deck buses entered service.

By Mark Mudie

The 44-seater vehicles will be working on service 60 running between Cannock, Burntwood and Lichfield along with service 825 linking Lichfield, Rugeley and Stafford.

Arriva Midlands say they will be based at its Cannock Depot.

Both services run up to every 30 minutes daytime Monday to Saturday and hourly on evenings and on Sunday.

The new VDL buses will replace older and smaller models, bosses say, and give greater comfort to customers, they added.

Investment

Bob Hind, regional managing director for Arriva Midlands, said: "I'm delighted that we have been able to make this significant investment in our Cannock operation and I am sure that our customers will be impressed by the new buses.

"The VDL/Wrights has an ideal passenger capacity to cope with peak demand and provides more comfort to our customers. The modern styling also adds to its kerb appeal." The 12-metre high buses also promise travellers a more comfortable ride with high back seats with headrests.

The new range of buses also has a new LED display at the front, side and rear on the vehicles.

CCTV is fitted inside and outside of the vehicles. Mr Hind added: "This is an ideal time for Arriva to be moving up a gear and we're sure we'll see more customers transferring to our regular, reliable and robust network of local bus services in the Cannock Chase area".

In December, Arriva Midlands also introduced a fleet of six new buses costing £780,000 to serve Stafford.

The 38-seater single deckers operate along route 481 between Telford and Stafford calling at Oaken-gates, Donnington, Lillishall, Gnosall and Haughton. The 33ft Versas feature high back seats and CCTV.

The company said it chose the Versa model for its passenger accessibility, low emissions and fuel economy.

Cake baking competition

CHURCHGOERS can test their baking skills at a Victoria sponge making competition. The contest, on Saturday, March 17, is the latest event to mark 120 years of St Chads Church in Chadsmoor. It forms part of a coffee and cake morning from 10am to noon at the Cannock Road church.

To enter, contact Sue Searle for the recipe on 01543 451480. Proceeds will go towards church funds.

Celebrations will continue throughout the year with a flower arranging display, plant sale, dog walk and barbecue.

Close shave - Sue Myatt has her hair cut off by salon boss Amanda Coleman

Snip off the old locks...

A WOMAN from Cannock had a close shave when she lost her flowing locks for charity.

Sue Myatt was known for her thick and curly crowning glory - but decided to raise charity cash by having her locks shorn.

She marked her 53rd birthday by having her head shaved in front of a crowd of people in Cannock town centre.

Miss Myatt, who is self-employed, said she was feeling "very emotional" as she got used to her new look but felt it was all worth it as she hopes to collect more than £2,000 for St Giles Hospice in Whittington.

Captured

Amanda Coleman, boss of AC Hair, shaved off Miss Myatt's hair in front of her salon in Market Hall Street as a crowd of supporters cheered her on and captured the moment on film.

Miss Myatt, of Heath Hayes, said: "I wanted to raise funds for St Giles in appreciation for all the care and commitment given to patients, some of whom have been close friends."

The fundraising pot was boosted by Cannock Lions, who donated £200 towards the hair-raising event.

Appeal made on Royal pictures

PENKRIDGE residents are being asked to loan their pictures of milestone Royal events.

As part of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations, the village's Civic Society is putting on a display in the Heritage Centre at the Old Hall.

Organiser Pet Hughes is appealing for anyone with any photos from the Coronation or Silver and Golden Jubilee celebrations to get in touch. Pictures can be dropped off at the Haling Dene Centre in Cannock Road for collection, before March 18, or call Pet direct on 01785 714843.

The exhibition will start on April 7.

Thieves make off with bridal dress

A DRESS valued at £899 was stolen in a raid on a Hednesford wedding shop.

Two men and one woman, who claimed to be Kurdish, entered Sheena Shaw Bridal, on Market Street, at 11.10am on Tuesday (February 28).

They made off with the dress while the shop owner was in the fitting room. The thieves, who were caught on CCTV, fled in a getaway car at around 11.25am.

Contact Staffordshire Police on 101.

Folk club again finds new venue

A MUSIC club has been forced to move to its fourth venue in a matter of months.

Chase Folk Club has moved from The Five Ways pub to The Chase Inn and The Victoria Inn, in Burntwood.

The latest room was said to be too noisy so the club is now moving to the Foresters Tavern, in Ogley Hay Road in Burntwood.

Take a Shine to Irish folk singer

FANS of Irish folk music are sure to take a shine to a celebrated and popular singer when he appears at the Prince of Wales Centre next week.

"DROUGHT will raise food prices, warn farmers" (headline this week). Didn't take long, did it?

LOOK at the tender loving care some people lavish on their car, their boat, their hi-fi system, their super-dooper Italian coffee maker and all the other must-have gizmos of our consumer age. They love them, cherish them, clean them and maintain them.

A letter signed by politicians, nurses, academics and charities complains that some elderly patients are "treated like objects". If only they were so lucky.

□□□□□□□□

A TERRIBLE drought will happen unless we get several weeks of prolonged heavy rain. It may be time to invoke the ultimate rain-making spell. Put out the garden furniture.

THE latest official advice is to fight the drought by showering for no more than four minutes. This is based on ye ancient folklore that showers use much less water than baths.

But some of today's power showers could drown a hippo. The average bath contains about 80 litres while a power shower can deliver 16 litres a minutes, or 64 litres in four minutes. The benefits may be minimal and that warm glow of virtue you get in the shower is probably just a warm glow.

□□□□□□□□

I APPEAR to have opened a throbbing vein of bile in my request for suitable music for our daughter's wedding later this year. First out of the postbag are:

- * Fight the Good Fight
 - * God Rescue the Perishing
 - * Don't Wanna Be Under Your Thumb Forever
- One reader recommended a piece by Sir Arthur Bliss but said he was damned if he could see any connection between marriage and bliss.

□□□□□□□□

SOME of the best creative minds on telly are producing not programmes but adverts. The latest Halifax home-insurance commercial, filmed entirely in slow-motion, is a gem. A football hurtles towards a window. Assorted humans try, and fail, to stop it. And then the family dog steps forward. Perfect.

"BECAUSE I did not want to go that way," Maureen Darvell, 83, explaining to police why she drove seven miles north on the southbound lane of the M3, instead of turning around.

Mrs Darvell told Folkestone magistrates she had since sold her 15-year-old Nissan Micra and would "upgrade to a mobility scooter".

MERE figures can be deceptive. The week's claim that the excellent Call the Midwife (BBC1) attracted 8.7 million viewers hardly justifies the claim that it is "bigger than Downton". The only valid test would be screening the midwives at the same time as Downton Abbey. And having tried that with Spooks and taking a ratings pasting, Auntie Beeb would never risk a Downton run-in with Call the Midwife.

Family disco tonic for children's ward

BURNTWOOD residents are being asked to give their support to a good cause by attending a family disco next week.

Every year Sue Lynskey and Sharon Hancox hold the disco at St Matthews Sports and Social Club, in St Matthews Road, and 2012 marks the fifth year of the event. This year's family event is being held on Saturday, March 10, from 8pm.

Both Sue and Sharon have suffered with breast cancer and each year they have used the occasion to raise money for the breast cancer unit at Queen's Hospital, Burton-on-Trent, where they received treatment. This year all funds go to Birmingham Children's Hospital's cancer ward.

"Even though we are in economically challenging times, many people have been generous in the prizes offered and we are hoping for a super night," Sue said.

Burntwood businesses, including Fay Nicoll, of Nicoll Industries, and MJ Motors have donated raffle prizes, including days out to Dudley Zoo.

Tickets, which cost £3 for adults and £2 for children, are available from Sue on 07974 670578 or from MJ Motors, in Burntwood.

Goodies' founder recalled at service

A CHARITY stalwart will be remembered at a service later this month.

The thanksgiving and celebration service will be held on Sunday, March 25, to honour the work of Penkridge Goodies and the life of its founder, Win Laffan MBE.

Mrs Laffan died in June last year and the group, which raised a total of more than £300,000, was later disbanded.

The service will take place at St Michael and All Angels Church, Penkridge, beginning at 6.30pm.

Favourite

Anyone that has ever had a connection with the Goodies during its 37 year span is invited. The traditional service will feature a robed choir and favourite hymns, followed by light refreshments.

A spokesman for the fundraising group said: "Please come and join us to give thanks and celebrate all the wonderful work done by Win and the Goodies who aided so many groups, organisations and individuals over many, many years."

"Come along and share your memories, have a browse through the many photos, scrapbooks and letters."

Cast Hooked on fundraiser

YOUNG performers are taking to the stage to raise cash for Sport Relief.

Stars Academy of Young Performers are starring in Captain Hook at the Rose Theatre, Rugeley on March 9 and 10. It is Stars Academy's third such production, with their efforts raising almost £2,500 so far.

Local businesses have donated prizes for a raffle that will help to swell the coffers.

Show ticket prices are £7 adults and £6 for concessions or £20 for a family. Call 01543 899203 or e-mail starsacademy@live.co.uk

Hearty dancers

CHADSMOOR Line Dancers handed over more than £500 for a heart charity. The dancers held a display at St Chads Church, Chadsmoor, raising £400. The group added £100 to the pot with a further £100 donation making up the final total, which will go towards the training of cardiac nurses.

Bonanza for Briggs as profits rocket to £3m

FORKLIFT truck firm Briggs Equipment, which employs almost 300 people in Cannock, today revealed a ten-fold increase in profits after a record year.

A host of new contracts has signalled huge success at the company, boosting profits from £300,000 to £3 million last year. The firm, which leases Yale machines, has its headquarters in Orbital Way, Cannock.

Lotto cash share aims to improve community

A DEPRIVED area of the Chase is to land a share of a £200m National Lottery cash scheme aimed at improving communities.

Up to £1m will be ploughed into each area, including Brereton, over the next 10 years. It aims to boost the estate and make it a better place to live.

The Shropshire area of Wolverhampton and the Mossley estate in Walsall will also benefit.

Residents will play a key role in deciding how the money is spent after research. It is hoped the cash will be used to tackle anti-social behaviour, create training and employment schemes or new community facilities and providing more activities for young people.

Councillor Raymond Easton, who represents Brereton and Ravenhill on Cannock Chase Council, described the announcement as "fantastic".

He said: "It is absolutely brilliant news - it's fantastic really."

"There is so much that could be done," he added.

The National Lottery's Big Local scheme aims to give people a role in deciding how to improve their areas.

Under chief executive Richard Close, Briggs has been transformed since making a loss of nearly £10m in 2006-2007.

Part of his strategy has been to scale down from 17 depots around the UK to just three. A site in Livingston serves Scotland but the whole of England and Wales, apart from one small dealer site in Haydock, Merseyside, is now served from Cannock.

The firm has improved its annual results by £3m year on year throughout the recession and last September it won a £10m deal with DIY giant Homebase.

"We have not done anything radical just followed basic principles of business including building up sales, treating staff with respect and looking after our customers," Mr Close said.

Prosperous

The company, which now employs nearly 300 people in Cannock and 720 nationally, was bought by US parent Sammons Enterprises from Finning in 2006.

Last year turnover also increased by 17 per cent to £100m and the company won a number of new contracts, bucking the national trend in the sector.

Mr Close is confident of a prosperous 2012, with business forecasts for the first quarter of the year looking even more promising.

He plans a number of initiatives including the launch of the Briggs Academy - a training programme.

School launches walk of fame

Former county 800m champion and ex-pupil Tom Baldwin buys his brick from former teacher Nenad Popovic

A HOLLYWOOD-style boulevard is being created at a Cannock school where pupils are being invited to star in their very own walk of fame.

The project is part of celebrations to mark Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School's 50th anniversary.

The secondary school, off Stafford Road, set up a number of building initiatives to mark last year's half-century.

Ex-pupils will be invited to have their names engraved on a brick which will be set in a walkway leading up to the school.

Former teacher Nenad Popovic, who retired as head of sport in the summer, has helped to organise the project.

Progress report on cash feud

THE chief executive of Cannock Chase District Council will give an update on an ongoing feud between the authority and Asda next week.

Stephen Brown will provide a response to Cannock Community Forum on the latest progress being made over the fight for £500,000 which continues to rumble on.

The forum will be held in the council chamber at Becroft Road, from 7pm on Tuesday, March 6.

The cash was paid by Asda to the council as part of the conditions attached to building its Avon Road store.

The money was originally intended for an artificial sports pitch at the old Cannock Stadium, in Pye Green Road.

However, since the stadium was demolished in November 2009, Asda has been trying to claim the cash back.

Last month supermarket chain Asda was accused of "neglecting" a community park created as a condition of opening a new store.

One of the conditions for Asda to open the 24-hour store was that a community space was created and maintained on the opposite side of the road.

Two arrests in drugs raid

TWO people were arrested following a police raid at a Rugeley property.

Officers executed a warrant under the Misuse of Drugs Act at the property in Armitage Road on Thursday (February 23), where a quantity of what is believed to be amphetamine was seized.

A 54-year-old man and 22-year-old woman were arrested and been bailed pending further inquiries.

Chief Inspector Carl Ratcliffe, commander of Cannock Chase Local Policing Team (LPT), said: "The message to drug dealers is clear and simple: we will bring you to justice."

Store manager, Parveena Claire, middle, with the pharmacy team

Slimming business restarts in memory of late husband

A WOMAN is relaunching a business that she started with her husband before he was killed in a car crash. Sue Hawkins will relaunch the venture in husband Michael's memory.

The Burntwood couple ran the Pound Shedder Slimming Group together before the couple were involved in a head-on collision in which Michael died.

They were heading to Barmouth on a romantic break, when a BMW driver overtook them on double white lines and crashed into their Peugeot van. Michael, aged 58, died of his injuries at the scene. Sue, 55, lost her wedding ring finger.

One of the couple's pedigree rough collies, Ellie, was also hurt in the smash. She had to be put down four days later.

Scores of precious family photographs were also lost as the laptop they were stored on was destroyed in the smash on the A458, between Shrewsbury and Welshpool, back in 2006.

Susan, who was driving, needed an operation on her hand and has since suffered with memory problems.

Married

In November 2006, David Peter Cornish, of Newport, admitted causing death by dangerous driving. He was jailed for a year and banned from driving for five.

The couple, who married in 1973 at Christ Church Burntwood, had run their business together for 21 years. Mrs Hawkins will restart the Pound Shedder Slimming Group on Tuesday, March 13 at St Aidan's church hall, in Albert Street, Cannock, from 7pm.

She said: "I just feel now is the right time to make another go of it."

Wedding frocks shop hits hard time

GLAMOROUS girls flocked to a closing down prom and wedding dress shop in Cannock.

More than 17 dresses were snapped up on the first day of the sale at Gowns 2 Go in Walsall Road.

One lucky shopper bagged a £600 wedding dress for just £50, while dozens of teenage girls came to see if they could get a bargain for their school proms.

Shop owner Raynor Stock-Lynch, aged 48, had been forced to slash the prices of hundreds of gowns as she tries to meet her monthly outgoings.

She had been battling mounting debts which means the shop must close, but said the response to the sale had been wonderful.

She said she had no choice but to shut up shop to slash overheads such as electricity costs, while continuing to pay her year-long lease on the unit in the Kingston Court shopping arcade.

She said: "I've had more than 60 customers coming in to look around and sold about 17 dresses so far, with a lot of them going for £50."

Feeling the love at favourite Retreat

The staff from The Retreat beauty salon all glammed up to celebrate the love

A CAMPAIGN to find Britain's most loved local businesses has discovered that The Retreat in Cannock is a national favourite.

Thousands of people from the UK put forward their nominations for their favourite local business as part of the campaign run by local business champions thebestofcannock.co.uk

The 14 Days of Love campaign aimed to raise awareness about the plight faced by businesses and to prove that local communities can make a difference to a town's economy and pride. Among the most loved businesses in Cannock were The Retreat beauty salon, The Drive Cleaners - patio & driveway cleaners and Happy Tots Nursery.

Steve Mallows, of thebestofcannock, said: "It's really encouraging to see such a huge number of people voting in the 14 Days of Love campaign. It just goes to show how much our communities are supporting their local independent businesses, which is great news for the British high street especially during difficult economic times.

"Small businesses are the engine room of our economy and lots of local business owners - and their loyal staff - are feeling great because their efforts have been recognised and appreciated by so many of their customers."

Michelle Swindell, from The Retreat, said she was honoured to be named a Cannock winner.

"It is great to see people coming out to support local businesses and the British high street," she said.

"Thank you to all our customers who voted for us." To mark the 14 Days of Love campaign the therapists from the salon showed themselves 'some love' by glamping up for a photo shoot with red love themed dresses supplied by the Cannock charity NewLife.

Company targets Europe

AN ELECTRICAL firm with £2m worth of new contracts in the past year has launched its first overseas operation.

PP Electrical Systems in Cheslyn Hay is setting its sights on European expansion.

It employs more than 225 people at its Landywood Green base and has now opened a sales and marketing and technical office in Germany to help it grow orders there.

The electrical engineering firm is looking to build on more than £4.5m of orders from customers involved in machine tools, food packaging and other areas.

The new facility in Hamburg is headed up by a local manufacturing expert and will help to support existing clients, target new markets and provide access to opportunities in Luxembourg and Switzerland.

Managing director Tony Hague said: "When you do business in Germany, you have to show commitment and a desire to build long-term relationships. One of the best ways to do this is to become part of the local economy, employ local people and immerse yourself in the way they do business."

The German operation will initially employ two people, with associate engineers brought in to offer technical support on existing contracts.

The company has picked up more than £2m of new contracts in the last year alone and expects to double that in 2012, taking its direct export sales past 25 per cent of its £24m turnover.

Scholars chairman plans lasting tribute to comic

Chasetown FC has paid tribute to comic Frank Carson, one of their directors, who has died at the age of 85

A PERMANENT memorial to celebrity fan Frank Carson will be installed at Chasetown FC, the club chairman says.

The comedian, who died of stomach cancer at the age of 85 last week, was an avid supporter of the club.

Club chairman John Donnelly, a close friend, said a plaque at the Scholars' ground was among options being considered by the board. And he confirmed Carson, who became a club director, would be remembered at Saturday's home game against Marine.

Former Scholars player Mr Donnelly described his friend as a "funny, lovely, generous man" and said Carson's contribution to Chasetown's history would be recognised.

"We will create something at Chasetown FC," he said. "It could be a plaque or something of that nature, I could invite his family along to unveil it for us. It's important we don't lose the 'Frank' connection."

Plans for the memorial will be finalised with the rest of the board in the coming weeks, Mr Donnelly said.

Mr Donnelly took over at The Scholars Ground in 2005, and Carson started attending matches soon afterwards. They first struck up a friendship at a charity dinner in Birmingham

18 years ago. Paying tribute, travel industry entrepreneur Mr Donnelly said: "He was a legend, the fans loved him. On a personal level, it's an extremely sad loss, he was a lovely man."

In 2008 when the non-league side met Cardiff City in the third-round of the FA Cup, Carson promised Chasetown's players £1,000 for drinks if they won. He flew in by helicopter to watch the game and although the Scholars lost, he insisted they keep the money.

"The fans loved it when he came to matches," said Mr Donnelly. "He'd walk around the ground and stop and talk to people."

Europe payment must end

WE are all within Cameron's Big Society and many of us are struggling with the high prices of all commodities, while Cameron waits for Europe to get its house in order when he can act now for us all.

If our politicians withhold all EU payments for two years, they would be able to give every man, woman and child £3,800 in returned taxes, this would create a full economy as people would have money to spend and leave enough money to rule out all the cuts made under the current austerity measures.

It would end our need to borrow money from the International Monetary Fund just to survive needs of modern day Government spending.

The only way forward is to produce an economic forum which will kickstart the whole decline we are now in.

But our politicians lack the will, strength and the desire to put its electorate first.

HELEN of HEDNESFORD

Why we must fight for our forests

I REALLY enjoy walking in Cannock Chase. I love it because it's well taken care of by the Forestry Commission, gets me close to nature a great place to meet people with similar interests, gets you away from the rat race and it's near to where I live so it's easy to get to.

It has been almost a year since the Secretary of State bowed to public pressure and put on hold proposals to sell England's Forestry Estate.

An independent panel was set up to look at the future of all forests in England and, along with the Ramblers Association, I'm worried that people think that the battle has been won and our woodland walks are safe for future generations.

The panel is busy gathering information for its final report in the Spring.

I welcome its initial recommendation that the forests currently owned by the Forestry Commission should remain publicly owned, with a high level of public access. However, Forestry Commission land only accounts for 18 per cent of English woodlands and I think this is a golden opportunity for the Panel to look at the other 82 per cent of woodland and truly put public access at the heart of forestry policy in England.

I would be very grateful if you could publish this letter so that your readers can see that we still need to fight for a future of woodland walking.

Ray Nosek, Willenhall

Students excelled in debate

ON February 24, as one of my Burntwood Town chairman's civic events, I had the privilege to attend the Guildhall, Lichfield, to listen to a public speaking debate by students.

The speakers were representative students from Chase Terrace Technology College, Erasmus Darwin Academy, King Edward VI School and Netherstone School. It was a very entertaining evening.

The subject was organ donation and whether there should be an opt out system. All the students were excellent.

The winning team was King Edward VI School and the individual winner from Chase Terrace. Credit must be given to the staff at all the schools, parents and most of all the students who performed extremely well and showed the side of young people that is truly reflective of the majority of modern youth.

ERIC DRINKWATER, Chairman of Burntwood Town Council

I did speak out over future of hospital

THE letter by Labour Councillor Diane Todd (MP didn't speak out at meeting) is so misleading that it cannot go unchecked. I did indeed speak out at the public meeting at the Civic Suite where Mid Staffs Trust Board members were being questioned about local NHS services, directly asking the chief executive, Lyn Hill-Tout, to publicly commit to the future of Cannock Hospital.

I asked her to ensure that if Cannock was under-utilised now, as she had claimed in her speech, that she and her team would ensure that more services come into Cannock so that the hospital thrives once again rather than is left to wither and die. I know this is a real issue of concern for my constituents who regularly contact me, worried about the future of our local hospital. Others had already asked many questions about the partial closure of Stafford A&E.

Councillor Todd says local people "need an MP who is prepared to stand up and fight for us" - that is precisely what my question did.

AIDAN BURLEY MP, Cannock Chase

Police deserve thanks for doing a difficult job

I WOULD like to thank the local police service in Cannock where I live. I was burgled at the weekend and an officer came to the house to give support and advice the same day. This was very reassuring. Although I cannot get my goods back, I have some ideas to try to stop it happening again. I'm sure the perpetrators found it very amusing and enjoyed the spoils of their adventure. When they have grown up I wonder how they will feel if it happens to them.

Thank you to the police who do a very difficult job and don't always get the recognition they deserve.

K BOTT, Hednesford

Birds of prey add to disturbing deaths

I HAVE read recent correspondence on the demise of songbirds with interest. I have lived on the edge of Cannock Chase for 34 years and can confirm that the numbers of birds of prey in this area has reached such proportions that there is at least one attack in our garden daily.

It is extremely upsetting when all that is left of the prey is a neat round pile of feathers.

For those people who believe that birds of prey are not a serious problem, I would ask this: How many small birds does it take to feed one bird of prey a day, four, maybe five? Estimated populations of all birds are published frequently with exception of birds of prey. For some reason no figures seem to be available. The RSPB must have the estimates.

The birds of prey population will increase even further in the next three months creating the day of the songbirds final demise even nearer. I also agree that cats and magpies also add their contribution to the whole songbird scenario, which has made the situation even more disturbing.

Economy up in smoke

THERE is no evidence that plans for plain packaging for cigarettes will lessen their appeal, the Adam Smith think tank have announced.

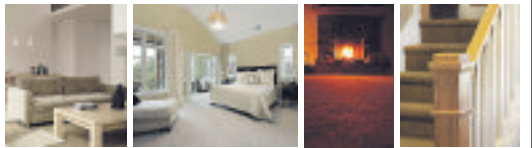

What a pity with the current state of our economy, that such an eminent body of self-styled thinkers, can only limit themselves to such matters.

Still, I suppose it is rather appropriate, seeing as his theories of political economy, went up in smoke years ago!

Slow-set concrete hits recycle centre opening

MP shows off his craft

Crafty session for Aidan Burley alongside Norton Canes Councillor John Beddows, left, at Norton Canes Library

CHASE MP Aidan Burley recently spent an afternoon at Norton Canes Library with the Crafty Creations Group run by Friends of Norton Canes and which meets every Friday.

Later he served the beverages at an afternoon tea organised the Norton Canes Community Partnership, which supports people and groups and promotes local events.

The Tory MP then held a 90-minute Q&A session with residents hosted by the partnership.

Among the issues discussed were speed limits, the quality of teaching in local schools, Ofsted inspections and green belt development.

He was joined by local Norton

Canes councillor and chairman of Cannock Chase District Council John Beddows and county councillor John Rowley as well as local Police Community Support Officer Neil Griffiths.

The MP said: "I was very pleased to be able to attend Norton Canes library for this crafts session and afternoon tea. A big thanks must go to Tracey Gould for organising the day - and for allowing me to make the tea and coffee, and most importantly of all, providing the biscuits!"

Partnership community development officer Tracey added: "Everyone enjoyed the discussions and was pleased that he volunteered to make the teas and coffees".

THE winter weather has delayed the re-opening of Rugeley Household Waste Recycling Centre.

Recent cold snaps have caused the concrete being used in the refurbishment to take longer to dry than expected.

The site, off Station Road, is expected to re-open by March 23.

It is undergoing a £200,000 redevelopment to improve facilities.

The working area of the site will be increased to expand the range of services it offers and to adapt to future needs.

The current hard standing surface will be replaced with a more user friendly design. Residents can use other recycling centres across the county including those at nearby Cannock, Burntwood, Lichfield and Stafford during the redevelopment period.

Opening days of the alternative centres can be checked online at www.staffordshire.gov.uk

Staffordshire county Councillor Mark Winnington, cabinet member for environment and assets, said it was important to take the time needed to ensure a quality job.

"When we invest money in any of our facilities, we want to get it right," he said. "It is unfortunate that the re-opening of the Rugeley centre will be delayed, but we want to make sure we are providing local residents with the best facilities possible."

"We will re-open the site as soon as we can, and in the meantime encourage residents to use alternative recycling centres where possible."

Christ Church, in Burntwood, with Britain's smallest park in front of it

The smallest park in the UK, Church Road, Burntwood

Children, probably coming home from Sunday school, in Fairfields, opposite the church

An early photograph of Christ Church with no lychgate

A later photograph of Christ Church with the lychgate

The smallest park full of Faith, Hope and Charity

THE smallest park in Britain is situated adjacent to Christ Church in Burntwood.

The park was to commemorate the marriage of Queen Victoria's eldest son Prince Albert Edward, the Prince of Wales, to Princess Alexandra of Denmark in 1863.

Queen Victoria was still in mourning after the recent death of Prince Albert, her husband. Quite who commissioned the park is unknown.

The three trees in the park are named Faith, Hope and Charity.

The church next to the Park was built in 1819/1820 on land given by Sir Robert Peel.

One of the photos shows it when there was no Lych Gate. Another shows the Lych Gate after it was erected in 1931 in memory of the Rev Weston who died in 1929.

By Ron Bradbury

He had been the vicar from 1886 to 1922.

He is seen standing in the pulpit on one of the photos, which looks quite spooky with the light streaming through the window onto his white hair and long-flowing beard.

The houses opposite the church were built for staff at the St Matthews Hospital, which can be seen in the background, and are known as Fairfields.

The children on the photograph are most likely coming out of Sunday School just up the road.

The school building was originally the Elizabeth Ball Charity School which was started by a Burntwood landowner who lived at Castle Bromwich.

The Charity still exists and funds are donated to local causes involving children.

The local Lords of the Manor were the Worthingtons of Maple Hayes, the famous brewing family of Burton upon Trent.

The cock in the tower was put in by the family in 1921 in memory of Sarah Worthington who had died in 1913.

An eye test at 12 changed life of schoolgirl Victoria

AN optician transformed a struggling pupil's life by diagnosing visual dyslexia.

Victoria Brown, now 17, lacked self-esteem and was struggling at school due to problems with her eyesight. She could not concentrate because lights appeared too bright. She had problems deciphering words and her grades were suffering.

After learning she may be suffering from visual stress, Victoria's mother Emma got in touch with Chase Eyecare - one of only a few practices which specialises in helping people with the condition. Among its well-known sufferers are the actor Sir Anthony Hopkins.

Chase Eyecare has branches in Hednesford and Cannock and charges £49 to ensure no child is priced out of what could be a vital examination.

Optometrist Shakeel Puri, clinical director, examined Victoria when she was a shy 12-year-old. He said: "On her first visit she was hiding behind her fringe and just wouldn't look at me. She lacked so much confidence."

Victoria's confidence grew the moment she put on the glasses. She became a regular stage performer at school and is now studying for her A-levels in art, drama and media.

She said: "Being diagnosed with visual dyslexia and receiving help has totally transformed my life."

Emma Brown, right, with mother Victoria and practice manager Jackie Murphy

Hotel celebrations

Paul Shelly, general manager John Oxford, front left Judith Gallagher and Anne Hughes celebrate

A CANNOCK hotel has celebrated surviving the economic gloom to reach its fifth anniversary.

Guests gathered at the 100-bedroom Ramada in the Orbital Plaza, Bridge Street, for a birthday party.

Owner Fred Pritchard said the enterprise was doing well, not least on the wedding side of the business, with the hotel catering for around 100 weddings last year.

He said: "The hotel has encountered difficult times with the collapse of the economy but it is now on the up and up." Among the guests from Cannock Chase Council were chairman Councillor John Beddows and Councillor Gordon Allcott, the regeneration leader.

They were joined by the chairman of Bridgtown Parish Council, Eddie Smith, tourism officers from Staffordshire County Council, along with staff, including the hotel's general manager John Oxford, and regular customers.

Shoppers to get use of library toilet

HEDNESFORD library has agreed to let residents use its lavatories.

It will allow shoppers to use its facilities until the new Tesco opens.

The town needed to find extra toilets after the old bus station toilets, in Victoria Street, were removed to make way for the new supermarket.

The deal, which has been struck between Cannock Chase Council and Staffordshire County Council, will allow people who are currently not members of the library to use the toilets.

Councillor Diane Todd, Cannock Chase Council's town centre regeneration leader, said: "I am very grateful to the county council's willingness to help us provide a short-term solution to the need for temporary toilet facilities in Hednesford town centre.

"It also emphasises the importance of Hednesford Library as a community facility and will help to raise its profile and the various services it provides."

Pat Corfield, the county council's cabinet member for culture, communities and customers, said libraries provided an important centre for the community.

"We are really pleased to offer our facilities to people in Hednesford," he said.

Vets offer advice to owners of old cats

OWNERS of mature cats in Staffordshire are being given the chance to learn how to give their pet a longer, healthier life at a free information evening.

Pool House Veterinary Hospital, in Fossey Lane, Lichfield, is hosting the education event from 7.30pm on Wednesday March 21 to help owners recognise many of the conditions that affect felines as they get older.

Vets and nurses from the hospital, which has surgeries in Armitage and Burntwood, will give advice and answer questions about cats aged from seven to 10.

Danni Pountain, deputy head nurse, said: "This is one of a series of free events we're hosting for pet owners throughout the year and we're expecting demand to be high so people should book their free place early to avoid disappointment." To book call 01543 262464.

Show is just sew good for top ideas

DON'T miss Britain's best stitching, beading and knitting show Sewing for Pleasure at the NEC, Birmingham from March 22-25.

And you can go there for free. The Chronicle has teamed up with the organisers to offer 22 readers the chance to win a pair of tickets.

With more than 150 exhibitors with all of their products, inspirational displays and expert advice you will leave the shows eager to go and create your very own haute couture outfits.

Following his recent fame on Kirstie's Handmade Britain, Jamie Chalmers aka Mr X Stitch will be bringing new trends in embroidery and needlecraft. With an exhibition of pop culture-inspired amateur embroidery from around the world and top tips and advice including learning the basics of cross stitching, this is one feature not to be missed.

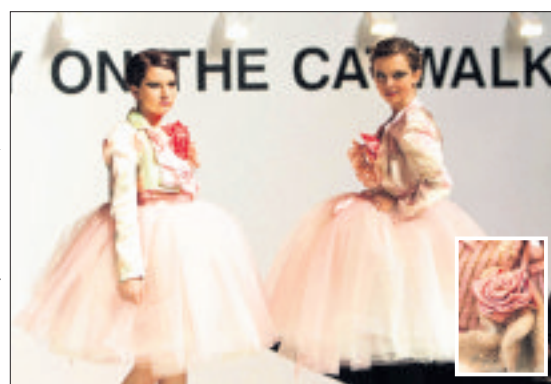

Trend

Brand new to this year's show, the Sewing Hub will offer visitors a chance to embrace the growing trend for 'make do and mend' with expert advice and workshops from the professionals. Whether you are new to sewing, a returning enthusiast in need of a confidence boost or are just looking for inspiration then this is the place for you to develop your skills.

The Sewing Machine Clinic will offer mini workshops that are perfect for any beginner to the craft.

If you are looking for a way to reinvent and customise your wardrobe, textile designer and author Charlotte Liddle will be on hand at the Stitch Diva's Den to offer advice and daily live demonstrations.

The Dressmakers' Pattern Bar will be returning to the show with all of the latest patterns and books, a great place to begin a new sewing project.

Be inspired to make outfits for any occasion down to the last detail (inset)

Have you always wanted to take up knitting but not known where to start? If so, make sure you pop along to the brand new Knitting Lounge.

The UK's most inspiring Textile Art show Fashion Embroidery & Stitch features free catwalk shows each day of the show. Downton Abbey fans will adore the sumptuous costumes on display from the hit ITV series.

With three great shows for the price of one, there is something for everyone at Sewing for Pleasure, Fashion Embroidery & Stitch and Hobbycrafts this spring.

Businessmen jailed in £5m beer barrel scam

A metal mountain of beer kegs, crushed and baled ready to be sold on, that was discovered in Cannock

AN unscrupulous group of businessmen have been sent to jail after police smashed a £5m stolen beer barrel racket.

The scam involved more than 90,000 empty metal kegs, each worth about £65, being siphoned off for scrap as little as £5 a time, instead of being returned to breweries to be refilled.

The stainless steel and aluminium barrels fetched about £1.4 million when sold as scrap before being crushed, recycled and shipped overseas, but cost at least £5m to replace.

Police found a 298-tonne metal mountain of crushed beer barrels in Cannock, and up to £200,000 worth of undamaged kegs that had been earmarked for scrap.

The businessmen turned to crime in order to cash in on soaring metal prices and laid a false paper trail in a bid to throw investigators off the scent.

They were caught out after an investigator looking for a missing load of 400 empty barrels shipped from beer wholesaler Top Brand in Birmingham heard the sound of metal grinding in Oldbury. He found the noise came from Lewis Baling Services where the truck was parked and police were called.

They arrested the lorry drivers and business boss Ian Lewis, along with a visitor, 61-year-old Anthony Geeling, a director of M&S Alloys in West Bromwich.

He and colleague David Fellows, 57, of Blakedown, near Kidderminster, had stolen about 78,000 empty beer kegs with a scrap value of £1.2m that were crushed in less than two years.

Trial

The two men and 45-year-old Lewis from Clent were convicted of conspiracy to steal and were each jailed for four years after a three-month trial.

Prosecutor Richard Atkins QC told Wolverhampton crown court: "They were all involved in stealing the kegs for their scrap value."

Tom Kibble, 32, and Neil Mackay, 37, both from Sutton Coldfield, ran the wholesaler Top Brand beer wholesale firm and were involved with Lewis in the scam.

They admitted selling him at least 12,000 empty kegs for as little as £5 a time, when the scrap value was up to £18. The duo pocketed more than £60,000 in five months until the racket was finally uncovered.

The pair transported 30 lorry loads of empty kegs - each carrying about 400 barrels - to be crushed in the five months up to them being detained by police, the court heard. At the time, aluminium was fetching about £1,200 a ton.

Kibble and Mackay admitted conspiracy to steal and were each sent to prison for 15 months. They were both of previous good character but had been "tempted and corrupted", the court heard.

Lorry drivers Keith James, 62, of Marston Green and Marc Curley, 43, of Hall Green who earned up to £400 a load were each given 44-week suspended jail terms after admitting handling stolen property.

SPECIAL SCENIC TRAIN EXCURSION!

FRIDAY 20TH APRIL - "THE SETTLE MOORLANDER"

To CARLISLE via the scenic Settle & Carlisle + Cumbrian Coast Railways (by direct charter train)

Running From: KIDDERMINSTER (around 6.15am), STOURBRIDGE JUNCTION (around 6.30am), ROWLEY REGIS (around 6.45am), TAME BRIDGE PARKWAY (around 7.20am), WALSALL (around 7.30am), CANNOCK (around 7.50am), HEDNESFORD (around 7.55am), RUGELEY TOWN (around 8.10am) & STAFFORD (around 8.30am). All times currently estimates. This one-off day excursion is entirely by direct train formed of traditional Intercity carriages, with pre-reserved seating for all passengers and a buffet service.

OUR SCENIC JOURNEY: Heading north we run via Pendle Hill, North Yorkshire and the famous Settle & Carlisle Railway across the Cumbrian Fells. After a break in Carlisle we return south via the Cumbrian Coast, which as well being the longest Coastal route in England, is considered to be the most scenic! Rural countryside takes us to Maryport and the Solway Coast (just across from Southern Scotland), then via Workington and the rocky coastal route to Whitehaven and St Bees, before heading down-coast to Ravenglass, Millom, Foxfield, Askham and skirting Barrow area. We continue via Dalton, Ulverston, Carlisle, Grange-over-Sands and Morecambe Bay, near the Lakeland Mountains to Arnside, finally passing Silverdale before reaching Carnforth and eventually retracing our steps via the West Coast Mainline back to your joining points, which will be reached by mid to late evening.

CARLISLE: A lunchtime break of up to around 2 hours is expected at Carlisle. You may choose to stroll between the castle, cathedral or indeed the Tullie House Museum - all of which are surrounded by great places to shop, eat or drink. The beauty of Carlisle is that most of the main area of the city is within walking distance of its rail station making it an ideal destination for most visitors.

TICKETS are available at £59 each (STANDARD CLASS - adult), £44 (child under 16 - STANDARD CLASS) & £99 (FIRST CLASS - all ages). These are only available from "Compass Tours". Comedy spoof became UFO drama for film duo

Filmmakers Greg Jenkins and Jason Kirkham whose filming plans were disturbed by flashing lights of a 'UFO'

TWO friends filmed what they believe to have been UFO above Castle Ring on Cannock Chase.

Friends Jason Kirkham, aged 39, of Burntwood, and Greg Jenkins, 23, of Heath Hayes, were walking on the Chase on the evening of February 13 planning to shoot a comedy spoof of film The Black Panther. But they forgot all about their plans when they saw a flashing light overhead.

Jason said: "We had just set the camera up in the middle of Castle Ring and I saw this light. A few minutes later I realised it was still there.

"We just kept watching it and it suddenly clicked that it was quite odd, the spoof went out the window." Jason posted the footage of what they saw on YouTube where it has received nearly 500 hits and he has been contacted by UFO fanatics who believe the footage is "something to get excited about".

He said the pair went back to see if there was evidence of a crane or other heavy machinery, and found nothing.

Rugeley

The power station towers dominate the skyline, while a giant Amazon distribution centre has brought a much-needed shot in the arm to the town. In the arm to the town. With a population of more than 22,000, the historic market town of Rugeley is prospering again thanks to the construction of the A51 Western bypass and a new McDonald's drive-thru restaurant that has created hundreds of local jobs. A new leisure centre opened up in Burnthill Lane opened up in 2006 and features an Olympic-sized swimming pool. The town has continued to thrive ever since and boasts its own theatre, the Rose, in Taylors Lane. Modern pubs include the Glass Works in Brewery Street and the old town cinema, converted into a Wetherspoon's bar and known as the Plaza. Its historic Charter Fair continues to attract big crowds every June. Three years ago, it marked the 750th anniversary of the granting of the town's market charter. Christmas in the town is always a big draw with a lantern parade and late-night shopping. Rugeley dates back to medieval times and was even listed in the Domesday book. Today, it has vital transport links in the form of railways and canals and is twinned with Western Springs, Illinois.

Travellers in hope of camp plan revealed as site owner

TRAVELLERS who want to set up camp in a field bordering the site of the Staffordshire Hoard discovery own the land.

Terry Maughan bought the field near Hammerwich, on the border of Burntwood and Brownhills, at an auction two and a half years ago.

He and his family were previously based at the Fishpond Caravan Site, in Featherstone, according to agents acting on the family's behalf.

A planning application has been submitted to Lichfield District Council to change the use of the land, on the south side of Watling Street, from agricultural to a site for six mobile homes on four plots with septic tanks and utility rooms.

It was submitted by Terry Maughan on behalf of his estranged wife Bernadette Maughan and her sister Anne-Marie Maughan earlier this month.

Enforcement

Before Christmas the authority had been forced to launch enforcement action when work was carried out to level the ground and reseed it.

The application has upset residents and metal detecting enthusiast Terry Herbert, whose efforts led to the discovery of the Anglo-Saxon hoard in 2009, because of its proximity to the historic find.

Ward councillor Val Richards has also raised concerns over the location.

But planning agent Alison Heine, representing the Maughans, said people had been alarmed unnecessarily.

"This is not a Dale Farm situation," she said. "We are talking about a small family site with just four plots."

Under government guidance you can have up to 15 plots on a site, so this is relatively small.

The council is due to decide on the application on April 16.

Dignitaries help to mark hotel birthday

GUESTS and VIPs from across Cannock Chase turned out to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the opening of the Ramada Hotel.

Fred Pritchard, chairman of Pritchard Group which owns the hotel, welcomed dignitaries, councillors and businessmen to the event, which was held in the hotel's sky room where the view stretches across the district.

Other guests included tourism colleagues and staff that have been with the Ramada Hotel since it opened in 2007.

In an address to the assembled guests Mr Pritchard praised staff for their commitment and dedication on taking the hotel forward in difficult and challenging times.

Diamond day for couple

Diamond wedding couple Florence and Les Craddock

A COUPLE who fell in love after being introduced by their siblings are celebrating 60 years of married life.

Florence Vickery has her brother George to thank for meeting Leslie Craddock – as George was going out with Leslie's sister Margaret at the time.

Both couples ended up getting married. Florence and Leslie married at St Peter's Catholic Church in Bloxwich on February 23, 1952. Their reception was at the local hall in Walsall Road, Great Wyrley.

Leslie is the youngest of 14 and worked for the coal board at Lea Hall, Rugeley. He and Florence have four children John, 59, Carol, 54, Desmond, 53, and Raymond, 51, as well as eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, including latest family member, two-week-old Mia.

The couple, both 82, celebrated their anniversary at the family home in William Morris Grove as well as going out for a meal with their family.

Daughter Carol said: "Their advice on a long and happy marriage is to work hard and just get on with it."

Final hurdle for £9.7m school bid

A £9.7MILLION overhaul at a Hednesford school which will see 250 extra pupils taught at the revamped site should start this month.

Outdated buildings at Staffordshire University Academy, in Hednesford, will be knocked down and replaced by new classrooms, a four-court sports hall and a BMX track.

Revised plans were going before Staffordshire County council today (Thursday) and were expected to clear the final hurdle after being recommended by council officers.

A light-filled glass entrance lobby will separate the main teaching block from a curved sixth form centre being installed as part of the project.

The sixth form will cater for 150 pupils while education bosses hope another 100 will be taken on across the rest of the school, boosting the pupil roll from 650 to 900.

By Mark Mudie

If the application is approved, work will start before the end of March.

Existing buildings which will remain standing will be adapted during the first phase of development, due to finish by Easter.

Bulldozers will move in in the summer holidays and construction will begin, with the new-build expected to be ready to open for the new school year in September 2013.

Original plans to move the entrance of the school from Marston Road have been altered after the proposals sparked complaints from residents.

Advice given over livestock

RESIDENTS who want to keep chickens or livestock have the chance to get some professional advice tonight (Thursday). Cannock Council's environmental health team has joined with the county council to hold the event at the White Eagle Club in Riverway, Stafford at 7pm.

NEWS
in briefOver limit driver banned for year

A HEDNESFORD man has lost his driving licence for a year after driving his BMW while above the legal alcohol limit.

Andrew Cope pleaded guilty at Cannock magistrates court to driving while above the alcohol limit.

Cope, aged 29, of Lomax Road, was stopped by police in his silver BMW in Cross Street, Cheslyn Hay, on January 14. He had been socialising with friends in Cannock. Cope was disqualified for 12 months and fined £100 with pay £85 costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

Nerina joins line up on the Chase

A PLATINUM-selling solo artist will support Will Young at this year's Cannock chase concerts.

Brit award nominee Nerina Pallot will appear with the Pop Idol winner at the open air Forestry Commission gig on June 30. Tickets are £35.

Rapper Plan B will kick off this year's concerts on June 29.

Pallot has released four albums, her latest is called The Year Of The Wolf.

Supersize mother takes on weighty TV challenge

Slimmer Jo Palmer at her home in Maycroft Close

A HEDNESFORD mother-of-three who battled weight problem for a number of years says she had to take drastic action when she ballooned to more than 25st.

After tipping the scales at 25st 3lbs, Jo Palmer decided to swap diets with a woman less than a third of her weight for an experiment.

The 27-year-old is now reaping the rewards – and television viewers will see how she gets on later in the year.

Mrs Palmer, of Maycroft Close, will be seen on the latest series of Channel 4's Supersize vs Superskinny, which began this week.

Soups

She exchanges her diet of pork pies, chocolate and crisps with 7st 10lbs' Emma Hughes' usual meals of cereal and homemade soups. The programme will be broadcast in May.

Mrs Palmer was given a follow-up action plan by a nutritionist and after eight

by Richard Woodall

weeks, now weighs 22st 11lbs and has vowed to keep it up and lose eight stone in all.

Mrs Palmer is married to Andy, a 40-year-old depot manager, and they have three sons, Selby, aged seven, Travis, five, and Archie, aged one. She said: "Before the show I was anything from a size 30 upwards. Now I'm a 28."

"I use to use the children as an excuse to eat. Dinner always use to be a rushed job. We would have take-aways, pizza or chips."

"I applied for the show and never actually thought I would get through."

"But they sent me an application form and I got through," she added.

Hospital staff off sick costs £200,000

THE costs of using agency workers to fill in for staff off sick at Cannock and Stafford hospitals is costing health chiefs £200,000 a month.

Trust bosses will inform staff about the financial burden of banking and agency workers in a bid to help cut the number on sick leave.

It comes after a revised sickness absence policy was introduced which asked those who had returned after being off sick to justify their absence.

At that time, 4.54 per cent of the hospital's 2,900 workers were off sick.

Harder

Dennis Heywood, non-executive director, told a meeting of the hospital trust's board that he thought a harder approach needed to be taken and said he did not agree with "personal incentives" to encourage those off back to work.

"It's costing us £200,000 a month. Human resources should be making it known what the costs really are."

Children in dressing up mode to mark Book Day

CHILDREN at a Cannock nursery were joining millions of other youngsters worldwide to celebrate World Book Day today (Thursday).

The children from Happy Tots Nursery, at the Orbital Plaza, Bridgton were set to dress as their favourite literary characters and bring their most treasured book into nursery for role-play and storytelling.

Nursery manager, Judy Kelly said: "It's important that children learn to love books. In every room at Happy Tots there are plenty of books perfect for the age group of children who play there.

"The little ones love dressing up as their favourite book characters, and the staff enjoy seeing all the creative costumes that have been put together."

Colourful art exhibition

Lara Teager of Chasewater Innovation Centre admires the new art exhibition

MORE than 40 paintings are on display at Chasewater Innovation Centre. The pallet of Colour exhibition runs until this Sunday (March 4).

The collection features a variety of watercolour paintings including animals, flowers, and fruit.

The exhibition also features gardens and stark pictures of gorillas, horses, and owls. Domestic pets also make an appearance with cats and dogs featuring heavily, showing the range of themes being covered.

The series of paintings by local artists Linda Atkins and Marion Cochrane are all for sale. Prices range from £60.

Bosses at the centre said art enthusiasts had the ideal chance to add to their valuable collections and are urging visitors to pop in and snap up pictures.

The centre regularly hosts a range of art exhibitions at the popular beauty spot.

Cannabis plotters start prison terms

THREE Staffordshire men, including the ring-leader of an 11-strong gang that plotted to grow millions of pounds-worth of cannabis, were this week starting long jail terms.

The group spent £1.4m kitting out a huge drug factory at a Lincolnshire farm. Neil Bridges, of Hall Lane, Hammerwich, was "at the heart of the conspiracy" and was jailed for six years.

The 36-year-old admitted conspiracy to produce and supply cannabis.

Bridges' right-hand man Peter Bassett, 47, of Kings Bromley Lane, Rugeley, was jailed for four years.

Tony Mobbs, 46, of Lichfield Road, Barton-under-Needwood, planned the barn conversions and was jailed for 42 months.

Both pleaded guilty to conspiracy to produce and supply cannabis, also admitted by four other co-defendants from the Midlands.

A fourth Staffordshire man, 38-year-old Shane Breen, of Lichfield Road, Barton, was given a community order after admitting the production of cannabis.

The owner of the farm pleaded not guilty, but was convicted by a Stafford Crown Court jury. Iain Brown and Desmond Bayliss from Liverpool, each got eight years' jail.

Club owner Alan marks 40 years in the business

A CANNOCK businessman who is believed to be the longest serving nightclub owner in the country is to celebrate his 40th anniversary with a special reunion event.

Alan Murray, who owns Silks in Mill Street, will hold a nostalgic 40th anniversary event on Friday (March 2) to celebrate the milestone.

It is believed that Mr Murray, aged 64, holds the record for being the longest serving nightclub owner in the country to still operate in the same premises having set up the nightclub as Snoopy's back in 1972.

Snoopy's is ingrained in the Cannock psyche of the older generations. Many people living not just in Cannock but the wider area grew up enjoying their weekends at the nightclub.

The venue was renamed Silks back in 1994 and this name has now become synonymous for weekend fun and partying for the later generations.

Better

Snoopy's was the first nightclub to be opened in South Staffs. Mr Murray forged the idea to open his own nightclub after visiting the former Club Lafayette in Wolverhampton and believing he could do a better job.

The legendary Bay City Rollers performed at the venue in 1975 and over the years Snoopy's became a regular hangout for music icons such as Slade frontman Noddy Holder who used to pop into the club when he lived in Rugeley.

Trapeze and Deep Purple rock star Glenn Hughes, from Cannock, also performed at Snoopy's a number of times over the years.

Snoopy's was also a hang-out for football stars including Aston Villa and Wolves striker Andy Gray. Later when the nightclub became Silks Cannock's very own Stan Collymore used to frequent the venue on a regular basis.

"We did a bit of research and I don't know of any other nightclub owner who has been in the same premises as long as me in the entire country," said Mr Murray. It is something I am quite proud of." The event on March 2 will start at 10pm and will run till around 3am. Legendary Celtic band Quill, who were one of the first bands to take to the stage at Snoopy's, will be providing the entertainment.

Mr Murray added: "We hope to see many of the old faces pop in on the night as well as our current clientele. It will be a fantastic celebration of 40 years of Snoopy's and Silks and it will be great to have one of the original acts Quill perform on the night."

"There has been so many fabulous nights over the years at Snoopy's and Silks and some wonderful memories for myself and for so many people who enjoyed their time here."

"Owning my own nightclub has been just a pleasure. I have met so many wonderful people."

A GREAT TRACK RECORD

What makes Freedom Driver Training different?
Coaching not instruction!

BTEC award in Safer Driving is offered to all pupils - recognised national qualification.

A great track record (5 clean sheet passes in 2011)

At Freedom Driver Training we care about each student and, through the methods used, develop the potential of the driver to the full. We use coaching methods (recognised within sport and teaching at the highest level as being the most effective way of getting the best out of the individual) allied to humour and a non pressure environment to assist learning.

Coaching is the new buzzword in driver training but it is something that Freedom has been doing for years. We do not give the student information, but give them the tools to find it for themselves. Freedom instructors do not believe that new pupils are "an empty vessel" to be filled but recognise that everybody approaches learning with a set of experiences already in place which have accumulated over their lives.

This experience of life is different from anyone else's and is unique. Through their experiences of life we are able to find the key and the reason behind a problem as well as directing the student to produce a solution from their own heads. I.e. - to own what they do and think, not simply be a reflection of their teacher.

A copy is never as good as the original so why not make yourself as the student the original? This also means that methods and learning, once acquired, stays and is not easily forgotten.

The self assessment and analysis tools that are instilled in the student are then used later, after passing the test, to enable them to spot their own errors, sort out problems and cope with situations that they have not encountered before.

Freedom also offer a Btec in Safer Driving, which is a QCF qualification, post test, which is administered by Edexcel and can be used to add to existing Btec qualifications and differentiate an applicant for a job from someone without one.

It also lowers insurance premiums with some companies. At Freedom we are all qualified QCF assessors able to deliver assessment in all aspects of driving, as well as being qualified fleet trainers and high grade DSA instructors.

We are also very proud that we have 5 clean sheet passes in 2011 (statistically this happens once in 100 years approx for an instructor) and Stewart has had two consecutive clean sheets - very rare, so we know that our methods are effective and proven.

Game on for sporty children at nursery

THE OLYMPICS may be just five months away but the only event youngsters from a Burntwood nursery are concentrating on is their very own mini version of the games. Busy Bees nursery, based on Shaftsbury Drive, is holding an Olympic afternoon tomorrow (Friday) when international champion hurdler Peter Shallow will be a VIP guest.

The event is part of a Busy Bees torch relay, a national event spread over 136 working days and incorporating all 136 Busy Bee nurseries across the country.

Youngsters will take part in a variety of activities and will all receive certificates as they complete milestones of the nursery's Golden Mile programme

Wedding dream rescued

Tracey Gray and Marek Burley, of Heath Hayes, whose threatened wedding is back on

A BRIDE-TO-BE and her fiancé can hear wedding bells again after their threatened nuptials were rescued.

Hairdresser Tracey Gray was heartbroken after the mystery closure of Weston Hall, near Stafford, 14 weeks before her sit-down meal for 60 guests and party for her wedding to fiancé Marek Burley in May.

Now the couple, both aged 37, of Carlton Close, Heath Hayes, have found an alternative venue – set in a stately home as Tracey had always dreamed. The pair will now celebrate their wedding at Patshull Hall, a Grade I listed Georgian house in Burnhill Green, South Staffordshire.

Tracey said: "We're so happy. The staff at Patshull Hall have given us a good deal and they've gone out of their way to accommodate us. We've lost £2,000 but it could have been a lot worse."

Weston Hall is still closed, and the phone lines dead. Its owner Paul Reynolds was unavailable for comment.

Couples offered discount on day

A CANNOCK firm is offering to come to the financial rescue of couples who face having their marriage celebrations ruined by the collapse of wedding venue Weston Hall.

Debra Bennett and Claire Davenport, who run Carabou Events, are offering discounts on wedding decorations to those affected by the closure of the hall, near Stafford, which closed suddenly earlier this year.

Debbie said many couples had lost quite a lot of money.

"We are prepared to give discounts on our leading products to those affected by this," she said.

Special

Claire added: "By helping them and making their day a little more special will be our pleasure".

Carabou Events, which

By Syema Majeed

has been running for five years, offers a range of services including weddings, parties and corporate events from its shop in Hawks Green Centre, Heath Hayes.

Offers include 25 per cent of chair cover hire and 50 per cent off balloon decorations.

Couples must provide proof that they had booked their receptions at Weston Hall.

Carabou Events can be contacted at www.carabouevents.co.uk or on 01543 450490.

Tribute acts at the Tack

TWO celebrated tribute acts have been lined up to appear at a Hedgesford pub this weekend.

Hugely popular Led Zeppelin tribute act Fred Zeppelin make a welcome appearance at The Tackeroo, on Bracken Close, at 9pm tomorrow (Friday).

The following evening a Meat Loaf tribute act makes a return. Craig Halford, otherwise known as Maet Loaf, is on stage at 9pm. Entry for both gigs is £6.

Its Not about the Money

Walsall's Premier Nightspot

Many people will have the misconception that Casino's are all about losing their hard earned money, how wrong they can be!

G Casino, Walsall's newest nightspot situated just off Junction 10 on the M6, which is open 24hrs with ample free car parking, will welcome you into the most pleasant of surroundings, and surprise you with the relaxed and exciting ambience you'd never expect from a Casino.

Considering the amount of effort it takes to obtain the right kind of licenses, three in all, to run a Casino, you'd think the management would be more likely to shout about their gambling premises to Walsall, Wolverhampton, West Midlands and beyond.

At no point would you think this was simply a gambling venue, and the fear of losing anything including your shirt, has quickly been vanquished.

The fact that you can enter, enjoy a drink with a meal, without ever having to venture close to any form of gambling says everything about how strong the management feel here about the importance of keeping existing customers happy, together with getting those all important recommendations onto the next group of potentials.

In our opinion you can't go wrong here for a romantic night out with a loved one, or an evening out with friends.

Contact your premier nightspot for more information on upcoming events and special offers on 01922 645222.

There is always fantastic live entertainment every Saturday! Visit grosvenorcasinos.com for a full list of entertainment.

Roll up for all the fun of the circus

A SPECTACULAR performance is promised when the incomparable Chinese State Circus brings its Ying Yang show to Lichfield next week.

The undisputed masters of physical theatre are sure to have the audience enthralled with a breathtaking fusion of precision acrobatics, martial arts and dazzling circus skills.

The highly awaited return of China's greatest circus features the first UK appearance of the formidable Shaolin Warrior, known only as The One, sourced specifically by director Phillip Gandy.

Yin Yang will also showcase the more delicate side of Chinese tradition with the silk aerial act, parasol juggling, an eye-catching Lion Dance and the legendary bicycle act in which 10 artistes manoeuvre onto a single bicycle. A spokesman for the Lichfield Garrick, which is hosting four performances on March 9 and 10, said the show was sure to entertain the entire family long after the final curtain had fallen.

"This unique extravaganza showcases only the best in entertainment; witness acrobats defying gravity in an array of elaborate, explosive and highly choreographed presentations of power, poise and agility," the spokesperson added.

Somersaults

"Witness the unpredictable and exhilarating twists of foot juggling with drums, the famous Chinese poles, the sensational contortionist and the dynamic hoop divers with their amazing somersaults, leaps and jumps which all go towards completing this action packed programme.

"Every sensational act flows through the evening without narrative and accompanied by a captivating and atmospheric all girl group of live musicians."

Performances take place at 2pm and 7pm on both days.

Ticket prices range from £13.50 to £25. Family tickets start from £68. To book visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com or call 01543 412121.

Chinese State Circus have date at the Lichfield Garrick on March 9/10

Corrie star panto role

THE LICHFIELD Garrick has revealed details of its next Christmas production - Alice in Wonderland with a circus twist.

Steve Huison, otherwise known as Eddie Windass in Coronation Street and Lomper in smash hit film The Full Monty, will head up the cast for the festive family show.

It comes from the same team behind 2011's record breaking production of A Christmas Carol and will take the whole family on a journey to Wonderland.

The razzle dazzle of the big top will be brought vividly to life with spectacular scenery, colourful costumes and a toe-tapping score performed live on stage by the Lichfield Garrick's circus band.

Thrilled

Adrian Jackson, Lichfield Garrick's artistic and executive director, said Alice in Wonderland was set to be the theatre's most extravagant festive show yet.

"The whole theatre will be transformed into a Christmas wonderland," he added.

"I'm thrilled that Steve Huison will be starring in this year's show. Steve is a very talented actor and is widely known."

Alice and Wonderland will run at the Garrick from December 6 to January 6 with a variety of school, matinee and evening performances on the schedule.

Tickets cost from £12.50 for children and £20 for adults.

To book, call the box office on 01543 412121 or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com

Take a chance on ABBA tribute act

PROGRESSIVE rock, 1970s glam, smooth Latin sounds and acoustic instrumentalists are all part of the new spring season at the Lichfield Garrick. The theatre's line-up has been catered to suit a variety of tastes.

A huge list of hits from 70s favourites ABBA and The Bee Gees will be performed tomorrow (Friday) in The Winner Takes It All - featuring a non-stop barrage of classics including Stayin' Alive, Night Fever, More Than a Woman, Dancing Queen, Waterloo, Take a Chance On Me, and Fernando.

On Saturday, UK Pink Floyd Experience will replicate the line up of the full live Pink Floyd touring band of the late 80s and 90s. With state-of-the-art sound and a spectacular light show, the band will perform hits from Dark Side of the Moon through to Division Bell.

Dynamics

Jazz quartet Gypsy Fire follow at the Garrick on Friday March 9, combining musical virtuosity and exhilarating dynamics by combining such genres as classical, jazz, Latin, rock and blues. One of the most outstanding guitar duos in the UK, Ezio, will return to the theatre the following night.

From Black Boots On Latin Feet to This Is The Day, Ezio's music has been described as Latin, alternative and country but with unmistakably English song writing.

TAKE ME OUT

ITV1, 8.05pm

ON THE MOVE IN 2012 WITH CHASE INDEPENDENT

Rugeley Estate and Letting Agent, Chase Independent, is looking forward to a new year with a new look, thanks to a rebrand and refurbishment of their offices in Horsefair.

The company - established almost five years ago by Jason Dibble and wife Michele, who heads the lettings division - is enjoying a great start to 2012, following an unseasonably busy December.

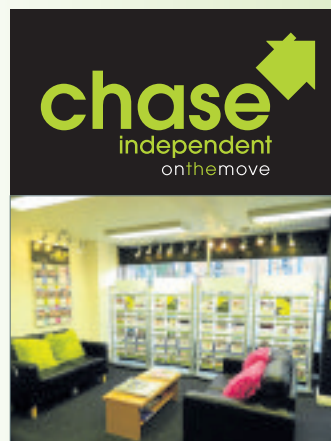

January has already seen a number of purchases, including the sale of one property within 48 hours of it coming onto the market, thanks to the team's hard-work and expertise.

Investment buyers are continuing to keep the market buoyant on lower-priced properties, and relatively low mortgage rates is good news for first-time buyers and existing home-owners alike.

Every rental property on the company's books was let by the Christmas break, and now a much-needed influx of a new landlords in January is helping to meet the huge demand from tenants.

All of which signals a positive year ahead - a positivity reflected in the business's rebrand, introducing a new, fresher look for the firm.

'We're a forward-looking business, with a modern, professional outlook and we want our branding to represent this, which is why we have invested in the new design,' explained Jason.

'We've also refurbished our offices to ensure the clean, contemporary feel of our new branding is continued throughout the business. We're a positive company, and we want everyone who comes into our offices to immediately feel at ease, and recognise that we can achieve all that we promise.'

Another innovation for Chase Independent is their newsletter, which is set out to clients each week, packed with information about the current property sales and lettings market as well as company news, keeping them up-to-date with all developments.

'Communication is vital in our industry, and our newsletter will help ensure our customers keep their fingers on the industry's pulse,' said Jason.

For specialist advice, whether buying or selling your home, contact Chase Independent today on 01889 582233.

As an added incentive to prospective customers, Chase Independent is reducing its fees throughout January and February, from 1.5% to 1%*. (available on a sole agency basis). *Plus VAT.

Renault takes award winner to a new level

Mégane Renaultsport 265 offers the TomTom Live sat nav system, as does the rest of the range

MÉGANE Renaultsport is powering on from the success of the multi award-winning 250 range with a new and improved model for 2012, packing more power and torque.

Open for customer ordering from now, Renault's new performance flagships, Mégane Renaultsport 265 Cup and 265 are priced £24,825 and £26,025 on-the-road. The key improvement on the second phase of the French brand's halo model is a 15hp hike on its predecessor, plus an extra 20Nm torque, both released through the car's Renaultsport Dynamic Management programme.

Compared to the previous model, the Renaultsport 265 boasts improved performance statistics, dispatching 0-62mph in six seconds with a top speed of 158 mph, up by an extra two mph. Its 360Nm is usefully available across a broad rev band between 3,000 and 5,000rpm.

Renaultsport's wizardry has seen the engine's maximum turbo pressure updated to 2.5 bar, up by 0.2. Elsewhere, in either Cup form or with the optional Cup chassis specified on the range-topping 265, the new model retains the essence of the Mégane Renaultsport's award-winning recipe, including the critically acclaimed Cup chassis (stiffer springs, dampers and anti-roll bar and grooved brake discs), mechanical limited slip differential, Brembo brakes, as well as the innovative PerfoHub independent steering axis front suspension set-up, which virtually eliminates torque steer.

The brand new Mégane Renaultsport 265 range features a host of technological features, most notably the set-up for the Renaultsport Dynamic Management system which allows the driver to switch between two power settings.

Ford goes back to black with the new iconic B-MAX

WITH AN eye on the quick-drying properties that black paint offered the original Model T, Ford Motor Company founder Henry Ford famously credited with saying that customers can choose any colour "so long as it is black."

Ninety years has brought a lot of change to the auto industry – maybe none more than Ford's approach to colour choice. Ford designers will be in Milan this week for Fashion Week to talk about the new B-MAX compact multi-activity vehicle, a car whose colours were inspired by the world of fashion, furniture and high-end gadgets.

Design

"People like to feel great and look great, whether it's wearing their favourite outfit or sitting behind the wheel of a car," said Serife Celebi, colour and material design supervisor, Ford of Europe, who together with her team, closely-monitors the latest trends in colours, textures and patterns. "Unlike fashion designers, we can't present a new range every six months," she added. "But we can make sure that our vehicles are completely in tune with contemporary tastes and styles, and remain so for years to come."

B-MAX colours including Burnished Glow and Tectonic Silver embody the current trend towards subtle luxury, the feeling embodied by fashions from Gucci.

Gold

"Burnished Glow is reminiscent of a sunny autumn day, has a very natural, welcoming feel and echoes the colours we have been seeing at design shows like the Milan Furniture Fair," said Celebi, who studied Textile Design before joining Ford's colour and material group in 2000.

Her passion for colour, textiles and design came from her family roots in Turkey where her grandmother created yarn from sheep's wool to make carpets. "Tectonic Silver blends silver with a warm hint of gold," she added. "This is the kind of luxurious colour you might see on the catwalk in the collections of Versace or Miu Miu. The high series B-MAX Titanium models also feature a sophisticated pin-stripe cloth inspired by classic Savile Row tailoring, and modern interpretations by designers like Paul Smith.

Shiny

"The embossed pattern allows us to create an exciting contrast between matt and shiny surfaces, which is a popular trend in sports clothing as well as men's and women's fashions," said Celebi.

"We have also used contrasting textures to great effect with the smart high gloss black finish we use on the control panels and centre console. This was inspired by high-end gadgets and snowboards, creating a very modern and exclusive appearance."

The All-New Ford B-MAX will appear at the Geneva Motor Show next month and goes on sale in Britain later in the year.

As well as Radiant Ebony Mica and Crystal White Pearlescent, the MX-5 comes in Metropolitan Grey Mica

It's a luxury ad-Venture with the Mazda MX-5

WITH spring just around the corner, Mazda has introduced a new special edition of its iconic sports car – the 'MX-5 Venture Edition'.

Available in Soft-top or Roadster Coupe, this latest special edition of the world's most popular open top sports car features upgraded luxurious specification, advanced technology, premium interior trim and exterior colours exclusive to the Mazda MX-5 Venture Edition.

Based on the Mazda MX-5 SE and Sport Tech models, the Venture is available as a 1.8 MZR Softtop (SE) and a 2.0 MZR Roadster Coupe (Sport Tech) – with the world's fastest powered retractable hard top, up or down in just 12 seconds – with a dozen items of additional equipment over the donor car and priced at £18,995 and £22,285 (OTR).

The Mazda MX-5 Venture Edition's 'stand out' specification features light gun metal 17-inch alloy wheels, front fog lights, chrome front grille, piano black fashion bars and special 'Venture Edition' badging.

Inside, the MX-5 Venture has stylish Havana Brown heated leather seats, leather steering wheel and hand brake, climate control air-conditioning, piano black dashboard accents, alloy pedals, cruise control (a first on 1.8 models) and, for the first time on MX-5, a satellite navigation system.

Genuine

Supplied by Sanyo TomTom, the sat-nav features a fully integrated 5.8-inch touch screen monitor, 4GB SD card based map (45 countries).

The Mazda MX-5 Venture will be available in three colours, the popular Metropolitan Grey Mica and two exclusive colours to this MX-5 special edition – Radiant Ebony Mica and Crystal White Pearlescent – free of charge.

A genuine special edition, only 250 examples of the Venture Edition Soft-top and 550 of the Venture Edition Roadster Coupe will be available in the UK.

"Special Edition models of the MX-5 have always enjoyed incredible popularity in Britain and now the Venture Edition offers a unique combination of a premium cabin feel, sophisticated exterior and advanced technology," said Peter Allibon, Sales Director, Mazda UK.

"Together with their durability, enviable reliability and our current low-rate finance offer, the MX-5 Venture Edition is a thoroughly modern sports car that people can buy with their heart and their head."

Mazda MX-5 Venture Edition customers have a choice of two power-trains – the 126ps 1.8 MZR with a five-speed gearbox (Soft-top) and the 160ps 2.0 MZR with a smooth-shifting six-speed manual transmission (Roadster Coupe). The Venture Edition sprints to 60mph in 9.9sec (1.8 Soft-top) and 7.9sec (2.0 Roadster Coupe).

DAVIES

David Robert
(Rob)

Of Penkridge, formerly Milton Road, Cannock, passed away peacefully at Stafford Hospital, on February 23, 2012, aged 70 years.

Service will be at Stafford Crematorium, on March 9, at 1.30pm.

My darling Husband Rob

Thank you for the many happy, loving years we shared, I will love you forever. Your heartbroken Wife Eve.
X X X

Dad

You were special to us in so many ways, we will miss you incredibly, love you so much.

Sleep tight.

Angie and Andy.

X X X

Dad

Your passing has left a hole in my heart that can never be filled.

Love always.

Gareth and Teri.

X X X

Grandad

Night night, God bless, big hugs and lots of love and kisses.

Evan and Maya.

X X X

DAVIES

Rob

Letters sent to you in the army were so long ago, this is the saddest and last note of all, I write to say goodbye to a much loved Brother.

You will never be forgotten.
Rest in peace with Mam and Dad.

Sister Gillian, Brother-in-law Ray and Family.
X X X

For my Brother

I didn't want to share you, growing up you were special to me, in court days in your relationship, there wasn't two but three. Always in the middle, a constant shadow when you were on leave, fond memories of being a nuisance, make me smile now, not grieve.

Your Nibbler

Sleep well Rob.

Eirwen, Mike, Chris and Gav.

X X X

DAVIES

Rob

How do I say goodbye to a Brother like you, that I love as much as you. There's almost no one who's shared as much of my life, who knows me as well as you.

When we were very young you teased, played and laughed with me as our lives had just begun. Thank you for those special years we shared.

Now our Family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.

God bless 'our kid'.

Danny, Val and Nick.

DAVIES

Rob

Lord hear my prayer, keep my Brother in Your care.

There comes a time for all of us when we must say goodbye but memories of those we love live on and never die.

Love, Dos, Pat and Family.

In Memoriam

BLOUNT

Ann

Dear Wife and Mom

Four years.

Time helps to heal life's sadness, like a smile hides many a tear we wish God could have spared you for just a few more years.

Love, Trevor, Nicola, Paul, Tony, Jenny and Grandchildren.

X X

HOMER

John Thomas

In loving memory of a dear Brother, Brother-in-law and Uncle.

God looked around His garden and He found an empty space, He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face, He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.

Rest in peace.

Sisters, Brothers-in-law, Nieces and Nephews.

NOTICE TO READERS

Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a puppy farmer.

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.

2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.

3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Battling Blues hit back, to no avail

Cannock Town Blues U10 3 Chasetown Blues 2

CANNOCK shot into a 3-0 lead by half-time courtesy of Lee Mitchell and two fine goals from distance by Ryan Atherton.

Chasetown were a better side in the second half and reduced the deficit through Luke Poxen and Thomas Wilson, but Cannock held on.

Chasetown Scholars 3 Cannock Town U10 4

Two excellent goals by Jake Thornton, a fine header from Owen Brookes and a Phil McLaughlin goal gave Cannock a win by the odd goal in seven at Chasetown.

Wyrley Wanderers U10 5 APR 0

A second-half hat-trick by Braden O'Shea helped Wyrley to victory.

After the break Ben Colgrove started to run the midfield which led to O'Shea scoring the first goal.

Colgrove soon added a second goal and O'Shea a third before Ryan Craddock snatched in a free-kick for the fourth. O'Shea then completed his hat-trick.

Rugeley Rangers U11 Lions 4 Sportsco Saints 1

The Lions landed their first Shield win with a convincing performance.

Jake Webb scored twice and there were goals for Tom Harris and Ben Herriman.

Four Oaks Pumas 1 Wyrley Juniors Utd U11 2

United got their first points in this year's Shield Division B, playing neat passing football to stretch their opponents at the back.

Tom Wheelodon put Louie Parish away to open the scoring just before half-time.

The same combination produced a second after the break and Pumas' late goal could not deny Wyrley.

Hednesford United U12 Girls 3 Lichfield Diamonds 6

This entertaining South Staffs Young Women's League top of the table clash showcased girls' football.

Hednesford got off to a two-goal lead with a well-taken strike from Lois Brindley and a left-foot curler from the touchline by Katie Smith.

But Lichfield levelled before the break and rattled in four more goals in the second half before Katie Smith's long-range free-kick reduced the arrears.

Hednesford are looking for Year 7 players as they move to 11-a-side. Log on to www.hugfc.com or call 07919 105630.

Runaway win earns Burntwood lifeline

Spartans 5 Burntwood 36

BURNTWOOD earned themselves a lifeline in their bid to avoid the drop from SSE Midlands Two West North by dragging third-from-bottom Spartans back into the relegation battle.

A nine-point gap between the two sides a fortnight ago has now been reduced to just three points.

Spartans won the reverse fixture earlier in the season 32-5 so Burntwood were aware that they would have to pull out all the stops. That was exactly what happened, including gaining a vital winning bonus point.

Excellent playing conditions with a sound surface and a light wind provided a good opportunity to play rugby and, winning the toss, Graham Shelley elected to play with the elements in the first half.

A fairly even start allowed for the two teams to measure up to each other and on 10 minutes Spartans had the first opportunity to open the scoring with a penalty attempt which failed.

This seemed to spur the Burntwood lads into life as they started to put their hosts on the back foot.

Matt Wood converted a penalty and then Burntwood worked the blind side which allowed Dan Thornton space to score the first try of the game. With the conversion going over off the upright it was felt that luck might just be going Burntwood's way for a change.

Another Wood penalty just before half-time pushed the score to 13-0.

Although not a convincing half-time score for a team about to face the breeze, Burntwood began the second half well and excellent tackling throughout stopped any Spartans attack at source. That included the No.8 who had caused most of the problems in the previous game and Burntwood started to take a keen hold of the game.

Wood scored the second try with a chip over the top of the Spartans' backline and a chase to score.

With two further penalties converted, the best move of the game came from a good charge by Rhys Morgan who slipped a fine pass to Thornton. An overlapping run from Dan Garrity resulted in a well-timed pass from Thornton to leave the full-back clean through to score on 60 minutes. Spartans scored their only points of the afternoon with a try on 70 minutes from a lineout after Burntwood failed to clear their lines, but this was the only blemish on the away team's defence.

With the clock running down and the win almost certain, more pressure on the Spartans' backline caused a handling error. Mitch Adams reacted quickly to scoop up the ball and score under the posts to secure the valuable bonus point and reduce Spartans' lead to three points in the league.

Wood's conversion completed the scoring and the referee's whistle straight after was music to the ears of the travelling fans.

Shock as veterans left with rare loss

Nottingham Moderns 19 Burntwood Veterans 17

BURNTWOOD Veterans suffered their first defeat in over two years to what seemed a dubious last-minute try.

The award by the home side's referee condemned Burntwood to a defeat that never looked likely with 20 minutes to play.

Moderns were unable to field a front row and elected to play uncontested scrums, which contributed to the game not being played in the way Burntwood had wished.

The sides exchanged two converted tries apiece in the first half. The Burntwood scores came from Mark Willson and Rob England, both converted by Craig Addy, to leave the teams tied at 14-14 at the break.

Midway through the second half Addy's penalty kick to give Burntwood a slender lead lasting until the very last play of the game.

Nottingham forwards drove on and the referee gave the try, as he said the ball had been grounded under the sea of bodies.

Rookyard completes comeback

Burntwood Colts 25 Sutton Coldfield 22

BURNTWOOD Colts held their discipline to stage an extraordinary comeback against Sutton Coldfield.

Sutton made the perfect start with three unanswered tries in the first 12 minutes.

Burntwood took 25 minutes before finding some continuity in their ball retention but winger Paulius Kananavicius eventually won over in the corner.

Sutton scored again just before half-time to end the first period 22-5 up.

But in the second period Alistair Carless scored, followed by Craig Prosser, Luke Rookyard converted.

Ryan Percox crossed to level the scores and as both sides pressed for the winner, Rookyard's 40-metre penalty in front of the posts proved decisive.

Burntwood U16 24 Stafford 12

A hat-trick of tries by winger Ben Tranger, recently called up to the county under-17s, helped Burntwood beat Stafford.

Battling Cannock grab draw then rack up 14

Birmingham University 3 Cannock 3

CANNOCK thirds faced a double weekend against Midlands universities and came away with a win and a battling draw.

On Saturday they travelled to league leaders Birmingham, who had defeated Cannock 2-1 at Chase Park earlier in the season after scoring in the last minute.

Cannock played much of the first half on the back foot, chasing shadows in most areas and conceding two goals in the opening 20 minutes. After this, however, Cannock began to edge their way into the game and scored just before half-time. Ashort corner was won and Bobby Bhogal's delightful ball across the goal was turned in by Ed Martin.

Within five minutes of the second half Cannock were 3-1 down after a breakdown in communication at the back.

But a Richard Parker cross from the left was met by youngster Louie Morris to make the score 3-2 and set up a great finale.

Cannock kept pressing and with five minutes left Loz Perry picked the ball up on halfway and advanced into the D before shooting into the bottom corner.

Warwick University 1 Cannock 14

The thirds completed their double-header and came away with a big victory.

There were hat-tricks for captain Greg Bloomer, Richard Chambers and Darshane Theara, an Aaron Wilkes double and goals for Andy Hodgetts, Lewis Round and Ed Martin.

Cannock 1 Leek 0 Cannock fourths went back to the top of the Ener-G Midlands Hockey League Central Premier after beating Leek.

The game started brightly with Cannock applying early pressure and winning a penalty corner. The move worked sweetly and Josh

Cannock Hockey Club

Ward fired home the only goal of the game.

The second half saw Leek create three one-on-one chances, only for keeper Ollie Balcombe to nullify the threat on each occasion.

Wolverhampton 0 Cannock 6 Cannock travelled to Wolverhampton with promotion already ensured but pressing on for the title.

They bagged a first goal when Tim Butler converted a nicely-worked short corner. Darren Pugh put Cannock two up five minutes later with a trademark poach.

Wolves worked hard in defence, but close to half-time Cotterill scored for 3-0.

Butler added two to complete his hat-trick and Pugh made it six.

Yardley Badgers 2 Cannock Badgers 8 0

Yardley, fielding a number of players three to four years older than their opponents, were flattered by the scoreline as they ended Cannock's four-game unbeaten run.

Cannock made their presence felt with fine forward runs by Rob Massey, Jack Rolfe and Ben Hawthorne making some fine runs.

Cannock U14 0 Belper 3

Cannock U14 1 Worcester 1

Cannock U14 1 Bury St Edmunds 7

Cannock under-14s honoured their commitment to a quadrangular friendly tournament hosted by Belper at Repton, despite suffering several withdrawals.

Against Belper and Bury St Edmunds, Cannock were well beaten by two accomplished squads, although they did get on the score-sheet against Bury, courtesy of Nathan Lofthouse.

The highlight was a draw against Worcester, where they took the lead through Dominic Hoare only to concede a late equaliser.

Cannock Ladies 2 Bloxwich Ladies 2

Cannock ladies thirds continued their unbeaten 2012 with a hard-fought draw, scoring through Libby Henderson and Michelle Woodward.

Edwards leveller keeps up great run

Chasetown Res 1 Quorn Res 1
KARL EDWARDS' late equaliser ensured Chasetown Reserves maintained their unbeaten run in all competitions.

His 86th-minute strike levelled things up against a spirited Quorn outfit that had been ahead since a second-minute penalty.

On 18 minutes Wiggins saved brilliantly from a Dan Couth header and Baker was denied by the post, having latched on to a through ball from Dennis Moran.

The hosts remained under the cosh for most the first half, and Scholars were delivered a huge blow when they re-entered the arena minus goalkeeper Wiggins who had been red carded for dissent during the interval.

Andy Penny replaced Archer with Academy keeper Mario Kiesel. As is often the case the 10 men show increased resilience. Chasetown transformed into a secure unit driven by the heroics of Jack Hulins as the hosts kept Quorn's fliers at bay.

The only second half breakthrough the visitors produced was thwarted by an unbelievable block from Polish debutant Kiesel.

Substitute Jed Davies played Edwards through whose belter from the angle was parried by Quorn's keeper Luke Barrett. Sowe also fired inches wide as the Scholars cavalier approach seemed to stun Quorn.

Just as Chasetown looked to have exhausted their hopes Edwards equalised. He calmly controlled a Davies pass and curled the ball into the gap between Barrett and the upright.

Fife flourishes with a hat-trick

Castle Vale JKS 2 Brocton 4
BROCTON followed up their four goals against Stafford Town in midweek by rattling in another four on Saturday in the Midlands Combination. Premier as Gary Fife bagged a hat-trick. Brocton's Dave Berks powered a shot from outside the box which the keeper could only parry. Fife was on hand to tap home.

Dan Lomas then crossed for Fife to make it 2-0.

Vale got one back before the break, and a late penalty.

But substitute Mick Fox had set up Fife to lob in his hat-trick goal and Berks grabbed a fourth, finishing after a late scramble.

Rugeley fight back to share top spot

Cannock Chase League

RUGELEY UNITED twice came from behind to beat local rivals Brereton Town 3-2 in the Premier Division.

Scott Warner and Dean Watkiss each hit equalisers for Rugeley and with just four minutes to go Dave Bandurak popped up to bag all three points and put his side joint top.

A first-half goal from Andy McMath was enough for Belt Road to beat Yates Sports 1-0 and go third, just three points behind the top two.

Pelsall Bush eased their relegation fears with a 2-0 win over

Alma, with Ryan Chapman and Danny Brown both scoring.

St Matthews climbed out of the relegation zone with a 2-0 win against Brereton Social with a goal each for Paul Harvey and Mike Smith.

Barring a very unlikely comeback, Division One title favourites Magic Lantern are into the League Cup final after defeating Colliers Arms 8-0 in the first leg.

There were hat-tricks for Alan

Wilkes and Lee Knox plus a goal each for Lewis Perry and Sam Collins.

AFC Homestead twice came from behind to beat Ridware Oak 3-2 in their first leg. Lee Lewellyn scored once and Ryan Timmins' second goal of the game won it.

Cannock & Rugeley stormed to the top of Division Four by thrashing Lime Lane 8-2. Chris Collins scored four goals, Stu Cresswell two and there were one each for Bobby Smith and Steve Cash. Lamb & Flag came back from one down at half-time to beat local rivals Tackeroo 3-2. Dan Maddox and Mark Reynolds scored and the winner came from a diving header by Mike Grundy.

Second-placed Winding Wheel shared a goalless draw with White Hart.

Jolly Collier pulled further away from the drop by beating Cannock Social 5-0.

Jason Kirkham and Jason Pilkington bagged doubles with one for Wayne Lloyd.

Rugeley Rangers came from 3-1 down to beat TNT 4-3. Andy Wharton bagged two and Ash Warilow also scored with Mike Davey getting the winner.

Division Five leaders Railway beat Hen House 3-0 with Nick Pilditch scoring two from Andy Highman also on the mark.

Ten-man Greenheath came from two down to beat local rivals Church Hill 4-2. Jay Sorrel, Jack Mason, Ash Gilbert and Dan Lawley scored.

AFC Globe beat Jubilee 6-0 with Dan Stevens scoring four of their goals while there was one each for team-mates Jordan Tunstall and Dave Brazier.

Scholars take a tumble as Stirrup fires double

CHASETOWN belied a bright first-half performance when they were sunk by a Richard Stirrup double for Stocksbridge Park Steels.

The Scholars could have taken the lead right from the kick-off when Danny Quinn powered forward only to shoot wide, an effort he repeated twice more in the first period on a day when his luck was out. Two minutes into the game a cross from Mark Hands was headed on by Dean Perrow, but Steels keeper Ben Scott was able to gather.

The Scholars enjoyed a further chance on 33 minutes when skipper Richard Teesdale headed down to Perrow.

He in turn set up Quinn only for Scott to palm away his shot.

Chasetown suffered a blow when they lost Chris Slater to a groin injury on 40 minutes.

He was replaced by Jack Farmer.

The Steels had a good chance to take the lead when a move down the left found Scott Hogan whose cross was dragged wide by Jack Muldoon.

Thwarted
After the break the two sides traded shots and crosses before Steels finally broke the deadlock on 54 minutes.

New signing Courtney Pitt and Farmer lost the ball in the home half, allowing Matt Telling to put Stirrup through and he smashed a shot home to put the hosts ahead.

That was the only blip in a good Scholars debut for Pitt, but after falling behind the visitors' confidence seemed to wane slightly.

Stocksbridge 2 Chasetown 0

Muldoon and Telling both enjoyed chances to add a second for Stocksbridge, the former firing over the bar and the latter's shot saved by Ryan Price.

But the second goal did come on 75 minutes when winger Mark Whitehouse sent a shot into the six-yard box and Stirrup was on hand to guide the ball past Price and into the net.

Pitt's underlined a fine debut two minutes later when his left-foot shot forced Scott into a good save.

At the other end, Price saw plenty of action in the final 10 minutes.

He denied Stirrup his hat-trick from a free-kick and also thwarted Hogan on two occasions.

Meiji fighters each grab a medal on Brum trip

Members of Meiji Judo Club celebrate their medal success in the Midland championships at Birmingham

FIFTEEN competitors from a Chase judo club entered Midlands championships – and each one won a medal.

Meiji School of Excellence's success came at the Midland Area closed championships at Stockland Green Community Centre, Birmingham. The Meiji entrants won eight gold medals, four silvers and three bronzes.

It was the first Amateur Judo Association competition of the year and Sensei Stewart Hogg was keen for his members to do well, having competed very successfully in last year's event.

"The club is going from strength to strength, and I am very proud of all of my fighters," he said. "They train hard and are committed to the sport."

Gold medal winners: Bradley Turner, Meena Harrington, Jasmine Turner, Thomas Hudson, Shane Davies, Issie Hall-Woodcock, Mollie Hudson and Stuart Davies. Silver: Khyia Hudson, Jordan Smith, Reece Harrington and Riley Hall-Woodcock. Bronze: Lewis Asling, Luke Turner and Callum Nahoor.

Meiji train at Burntwood Leisure Centre on Wednesdays (6-8pm) and Hayes Green Community centre on Fridays (6.30-8.30pm).

Both classes are for adults and children. The club is under-represented among ethnic groups and would welcome any new members.

Any members of the public wishing to try out the sport can call Hogg on 07947 443642 or turn up to a lesson.

The club is also seeking a sponsor to help send fighters to the 17th Houvast Tournament in Holland.

Dire Hayes sinners at the Church

Alvechurch 2 Heath Hayes 0
HEATH HAYES suffered a day to forget when they were comprehensively beaten by a revitalised Alvechurch side enjoying a good run in the Midland Alliance.

Hayes started brightly and had an early penalty claim denied when Karl Wallis appeared to have been brought down in front of a gaping goal.

The Church began to control the game, but were restricted to only one worthwhile first-half effort.

Tom McNulty brilliantly saved from Andy Nicol at point-blank range and the game was still all square at the break.

On the resumption, Hayes had the best chance of the game when the ball fell kindly at the feet of Karl Wallis, but with plenty of time he hurried his effort and the shot sailed over the bar.

After 50 minutes Alvechurch took the lead when Nicol was allowed room on the left flank and his excellent cross was headed home by new signing Joe Wright.

In an effort to add more bite, Hayes introduced Andy McMath in place of Chris Geldart, but still struggled to make any impression on a resolute home defence.

The Church got a second goal on 75 minutes when Wright outpaced the Hayes rearguard to give his side a deserved victory.

Spot-kick too late for Hayes

AFC Wulfrunians 4
Heath Hayes 1

HEATH HAYES bowed out of the JW Hunt Cup at the quarter-final stage after finding themselves three down by the 18th minute.

The home side avenged the FA Vase defeat Hayes inflicted earlier this season.

The first goal on Tuesday came when a corner from Robin Sheffield was forced home by Dave Asbury.

Five minutes later Tony Collins chipped ball over the Hayes defence for Danny Crudington to volley home.

Sloppy defending from the visitors presented Nathan Rose-Laing with a chance which he gratefully accepted to make it three.

Hayes finished the half having plenty of possession and in the second half was a different story penned the home side in their own half.

Karl Wallis had a glorious chance to reduce the arrears but keeper Danny Tipton kept him out, and Joe McNulty then hit the post with a free-kick.

Wulfs then inflicted the killer blow when Crudington intercepted a poor pass from Ben Maddox and played in Rose-Laing who made the game safe.

On 82 minutes, Ben Porter was bundled over and Dave Waple struck a consolation penalty for Hayes.

Chasetown homing in on the title

Chasetown Reserves 3
Brocton Reserves 0

CHASETOWN stretched their lead in the league to 12 points with victory over struggling Brocton.

After 12 minutes, former Scholar Daniel Scragg almost put the visitors ahead on familiar territory. Joe Pickering won possession and put Scragg through, but his angled shot flew just wide. Courtney Sowe's far-post cross led to the opener close to half-time. Jamie Aiton nodded the ball back into the six-yard box and Tom Lowe slid it in.

Chasetown changed to 4-2 after the interval, restricting Brocton's earlier freedom on the wings.

On 58 minutes the inspirational Tom Brown calmly made it two after a Degville corner had caused panic and Jordan Archer wrapped up victory on 68 minutes with a fine shot into the top corner following good work from Jonathan Gould.

Martial arts students look sharp to make the grade

STUDENTS from the Black Star Aikido martial arts club have been going under the knife.

Several tested successfully for various grades ranging from yellow stripe to senior brown belt levels.

They had to defend themselves against various forms of knife attack, having previously attended a knife awareness workshop. Members also attended a knife course held in Stockport.

Chief instructor Tony Brown, a sixth Dan

Aikido master and national coach, said: "I am very pleased to have presented them with their well-earned brown belts. They train hard with serious focus."

Students celebrated with a cake bearing a white dove - the organisation's symbol - in icing.

Training is on Friday nights at the village hall, Pinfold Lane, Cheslyn Hay, from 7.30-9.30pm. More club details at www.blackstaraikido.com or email info@blackstaraikido.com

Pitmen's dreams go South

Frickley Athletic 1
Hednesford Town 1

HEDNESFORD Town's bid to put further distance between themselves and their fellow Evo-Stik North Premier play-off rivals was thwarted by a late equaliser.

The Pitmen took the lead through Ben Jevons' first-half header only to see Danny South sweep in a 90th-minute equaliser for mid-table Frickley Athletic.

Rob Smith's side, searching for form after a heavy run of fixtures against the division's top sides, struggled to impose themselves despite the efforts of Jevons, captain Jay Denny and the imperious Cheyenne Dunkley.

The home side enjoyed long periods of possession in the opening period and played the better football without really testing keeper Dan Crane.

The Pitmen's biggest threat was via the right foot of Elliott Durrell. The deadlock was broken when Durrell swung in a superb cross for Jevons to flick the ball into the net three minutes before half-time. But South had the last word to deny the Pitmen a win.

SMITH SCOUTS FOR HOME COMFORTS

HEDNESFORD manager Rob Smith has been on a scouting mission this week as he looks to bring home comforts back to Keys Park.

Smith's men face one of the longest trips on the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League calendar, a 340-mile round trip to Whitley, on Saturday.

But it's the next two home games for which Smith has been preparing, with fellow play-off chasers Northwich Victoria and FC United of Manchester to come.

The Pitmen boss took the chance to watch the Vics - visitors a week on Saturday - draw 1-1 at Stafford Rangers on Tuesday night.

The manager then headed to Matlock last night to watch their game with FC United, who roll up at Keys Park on March 17.

Hednesford got in some match practice with a friendly at Sutton on Tuesday, drawing 2-2.

But the game came with a price after midfielder Kyle Haynes limped off towards the end of the first half.

He may be a doubt for the weekend. Last Saturday's 1-1 draw at Frickley will be considered as two points dropped, after Ben Jevons' goal was cancelled out by Danny South's 90th-minute equaliser.

Smith said: "Frickley has proven to be a very difficult place to go and I thought we matched them, which was pleasing.

"But we should have held on and got the three points.

"As for the long trip to Whitley, we will need to give ourselves enough time to have a stop en route," he added.

"More importantly, we need to arrive up there in plenty of time to have a good warm-up."

by Craig Birch

Sutton Coldfield 2
Hednesford 2

A Chris Clements penalty secured a draw for the Pitmen in their friendly with Sutton Coldfield Town.

A pristine artificial surface allowed Hednesford, with assistant boss Larry Chambers at the helm, to play the better football on Tuesday in a first half they dominated.

Andre Langdell was given a rare start in attack but it was Jamey Osborne who went closest with a header inches wide on 33 minutes.

The Pitmen took the lead on 52 minutes when substitute Ben Jevons finished confidently.

But Hednesford let their hosts back into the game.

Carlos Thompson capitalised on defensive mistakes to give Sutton a surprise lead in the space of six minutes on the hour mark.

The striker first nipped on to a loose ball and finished well.

Minutes later he stole the ball from Dan Crane and rounded the keeper.

Clements' confident penalty levelled the scores with four minutes to go to save the Pitmen's blushes.

Game called off after fly-half's head injury

Rugeley 0 Wheaton Aston & Penkridge 17

RUGELEY'S match with Wheaton Aston & Penkridge was abandoned in the 68th minute after home fly-half Dave Bagnal suffered a worrying head injury.

Bagnal was tackled on the visitors' try line, but struck his head heavily on the ground.

Concerns over a possible head or neck injury saw the Air Ambulance attend and the game abandoned.

Earlier, a paramedic had treated home winger Matt Reynolds for a knee injury suffered in a tackle.

Both players are now back at home and recovering.

The visitors had taken control of the game with their superior pack.

They opened the scoring after 20 minutes when their fly-half made a 25-metre run to score.

The same player added a second from the restart, making it 10-0 to Wheaton Aston & Penkridge.

At this point the Rugeley forwards were in disarray and the visitors were outplaying the home side.

On the half-hour a converted try stretched the lead to 17-0.

Rugeley, following a stern pep talk from skipper Martin De Ridder, were much improved in the second period.

They took the game to the opposition and the forwards were far more effective. About 10 minutes into the second period, Reynolds was tackled and injured, being treated by a paramedic.

Bagnal appeared likely to score the try that would have brought the home side back into the game, but was tackled right on the visitors' try line and hurt.

Rugeley Rugby Club said in a statement that rugby union is a full contact sport. The nature of the game means injury does occur from time to time, but this is an exception.

The club also thanked West Midlands Ambulance and Air Ambulance for a prompt and professional service.

Rugeley are still looking for sponsors. Contact John Parkes or Martin De Ridder at rugeleyrugbyclub@gmail.com for further details.

Hawkesyard win derby honours

RUGELEY golf clubs Hawkesyard Estate and Lakeside clashed in the Mail on Sunday Golf Classic.

This time it was Hawkesyard who were well clear with a comfortable 4-1 win in glorious weather last Saturday.

Hawkesyard's side included players who featured in the club's grand final appearance in El Rompido, Spain, two years ago.

Results:
Paul McHale beat Jamie Growcott 685, Mark Gladwin beat Craig Nesbitt 685, Aaron Brookes lost to Darren Yates 1 down, Mark Woodhouse beat Carl Dutton 1 up, John Woodward beat Jason Cope 564.

Good news for all home owners COUSINS' BIGGEST EVER STOCK CLEARANCE

A major strategic decision plus a significant investment means that Cousins Furniture Stores have Millions of pounds worth of stock to clear with Immediate Effect.

For 3 Days, this Friday, Saturday & Sunday

Cousins have been closed all week, because staff have been working around the clock handling vast quantities of incoming stock from their suppliers, including the leading brands. Consignments will continue to arrive daily and all price tickets have been reduced to a fraction of the normal price for Cousins Biggest Ever Clearance Event.

CURRENT TRENDS

Through conducting extensive research and also as highlighted in the most recent Mintel Report Q3 2011, there is an overwhelming recognition that people want Great Value for Money on lasting Quality Products that also offer brand assurance. They're not buying Cheap, as they want product to last. This is never more apparent than on big ticket items like furniture.

In addition, due to the squeeze on incomes, people are increasingly using their "Homes as a Venue", spending more time at home entertaining friends rather than going out. This has led to a surge in furniture sales, especially in the living and dining rooms.

MASSIVE OPPORTUNITIES

With this in mind, Cousins have bulk purchased enormous volumes of stock and even negotiated short-term discounts from many of their brand leading suppliers to offer the buying public a phenomenal opportunity to purchase quality furniture at unbelievable discounted prices.

FANTASTIC STOCK DEALS

Furthermore as a member of the prestigious "Associated Independent Stores" Buying Group, Cousins have used their combined purchasing power to obtain some fantastic stock deals on homewares and carpets. In-store concessions, Montgomerys and Hammonds will also be joining in the Extravaganza.

THE INTERNET - CONTINUING TO PROGRESS

Unlike other areas of retail, people still like to shop for furniture, allowing them to try out products, ask questions and easily compare products.

Nevertheless the internet does offer significant opportunities, including more effective communication (via Facebook & Twitter) and the ability for the consumer to research product and retailers.

As a result, Cousins are also serving a much younger, designer savvy group of customers who demand a different range of products, with more functionality and innovation. These new exciting product categories will soon be added to Cousins' already extensive in-store ranges, further increasing the urgent need to clear existing stocks.

WAREHOUSE RESTRUCTURING

Both online and offline, Cousins' will be enhancing the shopping experience. The construction of an in-house photography studio will vastly enhance the quality and variety of their website imagery. It also necessitates the need to clear part of the main warehouse along with the associated stock, to accommodate the facility, putting even greater urgency on the success of the Clearance Event.

ENHANCED SHOPPING EXPERIENCE - NEW STOCK ARRIVING

To allow their stores to continue to prosper, Cousins will soon be introducing new Brand Galleries showcasing the very best in new designs and materials from their recent buying trips. New looks about to be launched include Vintage Chic, Scandi Designs plus delicate pastels. These new Lifestyle themes & soon to arrive collections mean that vast quantities of 2011 stock still needs to be cleared at dramatically reduced prices.

STOCK ARRIVING DAILY - EVERYTHING MUST GO

This tremendous need to clear stock from suppliers, their warehouses plus in-store mean that consignments will continue to arrive daily, and be marked down to prices for immediate Clearance & delivery due to the enormous pressure for space.

MADE TO ORDER

Cousins have even dramatically reduced all made to order items, allowing you to choose whatever colour or size suits your home.

"Through our research, we know that this Event is exactly what the General Public wants - Great Value, tremendous quality fantastic choice plus brand assurance. We fully expect to be rushed off our feet and with many one-off bargains it really will be a case of first come first served." Said John Shotton, Managing Director.
